HORRIBLE MASSACRE OF CHRISTIANS IN ASIA MINOR

ADANA, ASIA MINOR, SCENE OF HORROR

City is Burning and a Horrible Butchery is Going on in the Streets of the City.

AMERICAN MISSIONARIES REPORTED DEAD

Berlin, April 16.—A dispatch received today at Mersina from Adana says that city has been aflame since last Wednesday and that a horrible massacre is being carried out on the streets.

This is news conveyed to Berlin in a private cablegram from Mersina.

THE MASSACRE CONTINUES.

Mersina, Asiatic Turkey, April 16.—The massacre of Armenians at Adana continues. The troops are powerless to control the situation and some of the soldiers are joining in the pillage of the city. This information was received here by telegraph this afternoon.

AMERICAN MISSIONARIES DEAD.

Constantinople, April 16.—Information received here today from Adana, in Asiatic Turkey, declares that two American missionaries have been killed in the anti-American outbreak at that place.

The Moslem fanaticism against the Christians of Adana appears to have broken out afresh. The Moslem attacks commenced yesterday and continued throughout the night. One report says that sixty Armenians have lost their lives and that many houses have been looted and burned.

Ambassador Leishman has had no direct news of the reported killing of the two American missionaries. He has instructed the American vice consul at Mersina, John Debus, to proceed immediately for Adana and report on the situation. Railroad communication between Mersina and Adana appears to be interrupted.

Death of Americans Unconfirmed.

There is no confirmation of the death of the two American missionaries. Their names are not given in the dispatch received here. The British vice consul at Mersina has proceeded to Adana. The first news of this anti-Christian outbreak said the scene was Mersina, but this was erroneous. The trouble occurred at Adana, which is about thirty-six miles inland from Mersina. The early reports were declared to have been exaggerated and messages received here yesterday evening say that only ten Armenians have been killed. That martial law has been proclaimed at Adana and that reinforcements of troops were being sent in from Beirut. This latest intelligence refers to disorders that took place after the situation was supposed to have quieted down.

Is American Mission Station.

Adana is a station of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions with a working force of five missionaries and thirty-two native workers; an out-station of the synod of the Reformed Presbyterian church in North America, and a bible depot and sub-agency of the American Bible society.

Adana is a city of 45,000 people and is the seat of government of the province of the same name. The people are mostly Mohammedans, but there are a considerable number of Christians, including Armenians and a small Greek community there.

Makes Good Impression. The manifesto issued yesterday by a committee of the Ulama in which the government of the last few days is declared to be in no wise directed against the constitutional government, has created an excellent impression on the public mind.

The new minister of marine, Vito Admiral Adjemli Pasha, has resigned, owing to the hostility shown his appointment by the navy. The president of the council of state also has surrendered his office, but on account of ill health.

The minister of police and other officers identified with the committee of union and progress have either resigned or disappeared.

BRITAIN MAKES DENIAL.

London, April 16.—The admiralty today gave denial to the report emanating from Vienna of a joint naval demonstration at Constantinople. No British squadron has been ordered to leave Malta for the Bosphorus, as has been said, nor has information reached the admiralty of the intention of France or Austria-Hungary to send ships to Turkish waters.

ALBANIANS IN REVOLT.

Berlin, April 16.—A local newspaper today publishes a dispatch from Uskub in the vilayet of Monastir and not far from Saloniki, declaring that the Albanians of the vicinity are showing signs of unrest. Already there have been several clashes with the authorities. A band of Albanians at Petch defeated the troops sent there to restore order and at one of the Turkish military stations in the Albanian country military mutineers seized their barracks and drove their officers away.

Famine prevails in Macedonia and old Serbia. Eight thousand families are suffering, the correspondent declares, and more than one hundred persons already have died of starvation.

TROUBLE NOT POLITICAL.

Washington, April 16.—The Turkish ambassador called at the state department today and during a long interview with Secretary Wilson gave assurances that no consideration of race or religion had entered into the troubles that had been experienced in Constantinople and elsewhere in Turkey. His dispatches had satisfied him that personal matters rather than any political questions were responsible for the unrest in his country.

NO WORD OF HIS SISTER.

Philadelphia, April 16.—Dr. Talbot Williams, of the Philadelphia Press, whose sister, Mrs. William N. Chambers, is a missionary at Adana, where serious trouble is reported, has received no information as to the safety of his sister. Upon receipt of the Associated Press dispatch he immediately took steps to get into communication with friends in Turkey and with the American ambassador through the state department at Washington. Dr. Williams said that Dr. Chambers' relations with the Moslems had always been friendly.

AMERICANS AT ADANA.

Cincinnati, April 16.—Rev. Dwight Pratt, of the Walnut Hills Congregational church, of this city, said the following Congregational missionaries are at Adana:

William N. Chambers and wife, Lucy H. Morley, Elizabeth and Mary Webb, sisters; S. H. Wallis and Mrs. Borel. He said he did not believe there were any other American missionaries in Adana.

MONUMENT TO SOLDIERS.

Springfield, Ill., April 16.—The general assembly was asked today to appropriate $300,000 for the erection of a monument to the memory of the Illinois soldiers in the war of the rebellion. The request came in the form of a bill introduced by Representative Morris, which specified that the monument shall be erected on the capitol grounds at Springfield.

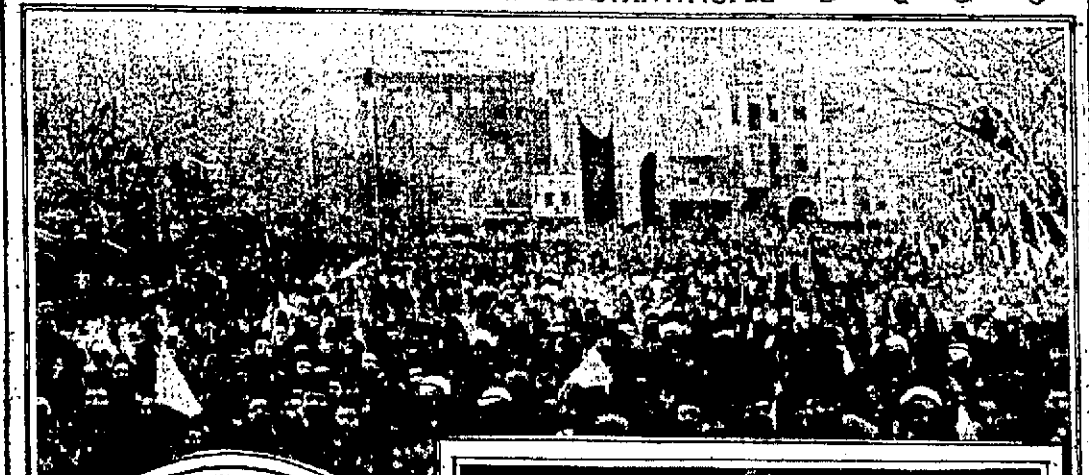

IS STILL HELD HERE.

Pittsburg Officer Has Not Come for Harry Blumenthal.

Harry Blumenthal, arrested yesterday on a telegram from Pittsburg after he had tried unsuccessfully to work off some bogus checks, was still at police headquarters today as the officers had failed to arrive to take him back. He tried to pass a check for $15 at the Alter cigar store and the police are turning up several new cases.

CUDAHY CONCERN IN MUCH TROUBLE

Indicted by Federal Grand Jury for Defrauding the Government.

OVER 700 COUNTS AGAINST PACKERS

Violation of the Internal Revenues Laws are Alleged.

Topeka, Kas., April 16.—Indictments were returned here today by the federal grand jury against the Cudahy Packing company of Kansas City, Kansas, on 737 counts for defrauding the government out of $50,000 by violations of the internal revenue laws.

The Cudahy Packing company of Kansas City was indicted on the charge of wholesale violations of the United States internal revenue laws. The charge is that the company has defrauded the government out of more than $50,000 in revenues on oleomargarine. The minimum fine on each of the 737 counts is $1,000.

The revenues law provides that each pound of uncolored oleomargarine must have a revenue stamp of a quarter of a cent, but that each pound to which coloring material has been added to give it the appearance of butter, a ten-cent revenue stamp must be attached.

It is charged in the indictment that the Cudahy company has sold the colored product under the quarter of a cent tax. It also is claimed by the government officials that the company has succeeded in monopolizing the oleomargarine market by selling the colored product and paying the tax on the basis of uncolored, thereby gaining a difference of 9 1/2 cents per pound. In this manner they were able to undersell other manufacturers and control the market. A civil action against the company will be brought to have the plant and machinery used in the manufacture of oleomargarine confiscated.

United States District Attorney Bone said to a representative of the Associated Press this afternoon, when his attention was called to the statement of Mr. Cudahy at Omaha: "The Cudahy cases have been completed by the jury and indictments returned for violating the United States revenue laws on 737 counts. The indictments will be reported soon after court convenes this afternoon."

ED CUDAHY CALLS STORY FAKE.

Omaha, Neb., April 16.—"There are no such indictments. The story is a fake," declared E. A. Cudahy to the Associated Press today when his attention was called to the story from Topeka, alleging that the federal grand jury had found true bills against the Cudahy Packing company on charges of violating the internal revenue laws. With this sweeping denial Mr. Cudahy dismissed the matter.

Mrs. C. Niles has returned from Chicago.

Henry D. Lahmeyer is confined to his home, 1226 Buchanan street, by illness.

FEDERAL COURT IS MANY MEN PERISH INVOKED IN BIG CHURCH FIGHT

Dispute Over Ownership of Property Once Held by Cumberlands.

Nashville, Tenn., April 16.—The federal courts have again been called upon to say who is entitled to the possession and enjoyment of property claimed respectively by Cumberland Presbyterians and Presbyterians of the United States of America, who went into the latter church from the Cumberlands.

Late last night a bill was filed with H. M. Doak, clerk of the United States circuit court, in which this tribunal is asked to say who is entitled to the valuable publishing house plant in this city, which plant is claimed by both sides in the controversy. This lawsuit is regarded as by far the most important yet begun and it is said that in all probability it will be taken for final adjudication to the U. S. supreme court.

The bill filed last night presents as complainants three non-resident unionists, while a large number of prominent Cumberland Presbyterians are named as defendants, together with the official board of publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, as they style themselves, are at present in charge of the plant, and they ask to continue in the plant, and that the Cumberlands be restrained from setting up claims to the property.

The official Cumberland Presbyterian board is in session here today and the writs issued on this bill, and returnable the first Monday in June next, were duly served on these members while in conference.

ARRESTED FOR BIGAMY.

Alleged No. 1 Appears on Scene at Hammond With Officer.

Hammond, Ind., April 16.—Patrick H. Bettenbender, of Chicago, was greatly surprised when Officer Grant and Mrs. Ida Steinhauser of Chicago, came to his home at Hessville, near this city. Bettenbender was arrested on the charge of bigamy.

Mrs. Steinhauser says she is Bettenbender's wife. She lives in Chicago. He has been living in Hammond under the name of Burns. It is said. Last year he married Mrs. Charles Kner at Milwaukee and the couple was living in Hessville, a suburb, under the names of Patrick H. Burns and wife. His bond was fixed at $1,000 and Bettenbender went to jail.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bosker went to Cowling, Ill., this morning, where they were summoned because of the critical illness of Mr. Bosker's sister.

Cheap Lodging House in San Francisco is Destroyed.

FRAME BUILDING HELD 300 GUESTS

Twelve or Fifteen Lives Believed to Have Been Lost.

San Francisco, April 16.—Six bodies recovered and probably eight or ten others buried in the ruins; six injured, one fatally, and property loss of $125,000 are the results of an early morning fire that destroyed the St. George hotel, a lodging house for laborers, at Howard and Eighth streets, and eight other small buildings. The bodies taken to the morgue were so charred that identification was impossible.

There were three hundred guests in the hotel at the time of the fire and they were thrown into a panic. Many of them had difficulty escaping owing to the rapidly with which the structure, which was a large frame building, was consumed by the flames. Many of those injured were hurt by leaping from the upper stories. Within an hour after the flames were discovered the building was in ruins. It was three stories high.

BATTLESHIP AT NATCHEZ.

The Mississippi to Visit Capital of Her Godmother State. Natchez, Miss., April 16.—The citizens of Natchez today began preparations for the reception of the battleship Mississippi, which Secretary of the Navy Meyer has said would be permitted to proceed up the Mississippi river as far as this point.

Arrangements are being made for an elaborate program for the entertainment of the officers and crew of the battleship Mississippi and also the visitors who are expected to be here. President Taft, Secretary of the Navy Meyer and other cabinet officers, the congressional delegates from Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee and Mississippi and the water ways association will be invited to be the guests of the city.

NO QUORUM PRESENT.

Springfield, Ill., April 16.—In accordance with the understanding at adjournment yesterday there was no quorum present today in the joint session for the election of a United States senator when the 12nd joint ballot was taken. Former Senator Hopkins received nine votes, Speaker Shurtliff four votes, Foss four votes and L. B. Stringer, (democrat) six votes. The next joint ballot will be Wednesday noon.

WOMAN STARTS A CIVIC REVIVAL BLAZE WITH OIL CAMPAIGN OPENS

Mrs. J. C. Coss Badly Burned as Result of an Explosion.

PLACED OIL CAN UPON THE STOVE

Removed to Lutheran Hospital and Chances are Against Her.

Mrs. J. R. Coss, who conducts a boarding house at the northwest corner of Wayne and Harrison streets, was probably fatally burned about 7:30 o'clock this morning by the explosion of some coal oil that she poured on her kitchen fire to start it burning.

She was hurried to the Lutheran hospital and placed in care of Dr. M. F. Schick, who found that her right arm was badly burned from the wrist to the shoulder, the skin destroyed on her left forearm and her right side and the front of her body from the waist up. Her face was also badly blistered and serious doubt of her recovery was entertained from the first.

Victim Gives Details. Her own statement is to the effect that her fire was burning slowly and she poured some coal oil from a can on top of the coals and then went into the dining room. As she opened the kitchen door on her return there was an explosion and her clothing was ignited. She ran into the hall and screamed for help. B. H. Danforth, a boarder heard her and rushed down stairs and tried to smother the flames with his hands. In a few seconds H. W. Sanford, another boarder, came to the rescue with a blanket snatched from his bed and the two men extinguished the fire which had in the meantime consumed her clothing above the waist.

Her hair was on fire and the flames ignited the woodwork. An alarm was turned in and the firemen could not get a stream for the reason that the contractors engaged in erecting the building at the southeast corner of Harrison and Wayne had built a fence around the fire plug which delayed the firemen. The fire was put out, however, with little loss.

It is probable that after pouring oil on the fire Mrs. Coss put the can on top of the stove and the heat generated gas that exploded and caused the accident. The bottom was melted from the can and was found on the stove by the firemen upon their arrival. Mrs. Coss did not lose consciousness and was able to get up off the floor and walk to the stretcher in which she was carried to the ambulance. She asked if she was badly burned and was particularly anxious about her face.

The husband owns a farm near Andrews and was called by telephone to the hospital. He spends the greater part of his time there and the wife conducts the boarding house. One son is a dentist practicing in Indianapolis, and a married daughter lives near Huntington. None of the members of her family was with her at the time of the accident.

Third Accident in Week.

The accident to Mrs. Coss is the third of similar character to occur in Fort Wayne within the past week, and this fact serves to add to the horror of the distressing affair.

On April 9, Mary Leink, a fifteen-year-old girl, residing at 1149 Grant avenue, was fatally burned by gasoline, her death occurring a few hours later. On Wednesday of this week Miss Anna Angst, of Madison street, was fatally burned while using gasoline to clean an oil stove. Her death followed three hours later at St. Joseph's hospital.

MR. SCHERER IN RACE.

Former Mayor Will Try for Return to Office.

Hon. Henry P. Scherer has made formal announcement of his candidacy for the democratic nomination for mayor of Fort Wayne. Mr. Scherer has already occupied the mayoralty, having been elected in that office by Hon. Henry C. Krogg. It has been known to Mr. Scherer's friends for some time that he was considering an entry into the race this year, and he has been assured of considerable support.

Joseph A. Haley, of the Ninth ward, who has also been doing some quiet work among his friends in the effort to secure the democratic nomination, has also made formal announcement of his candidacy.

DRASTIC MEDICAL LAW.

Physicians With Tuberculosis Cannot Practice in Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla., April 16.—No more physicians who are diseased with consumption or tuberculosis will be licensed to practice medicine in Oklahoma. This was the decision reached by the state board of medical examiners in session here yesterday.

It was found that physicians from the east with consumption were coming to Oklahoma to practice, hoping to benefit their health. It was held by the board that the interests of patients demanded that in the future the board refuse to issue licenses to such practitioners.

Movement for City Beautiful Given Big Impetus at Banquet.

SPEAKERS SOUND NOTE OF PROGRESS

Enthusiasm Marks Commercial Club's Big Dinner at Anthony.

Preaching the gospel of a new evangelism—the Civic Revival—speakers about the banquet tables at hotel Anthony Thursday evening launched amid tremendous enthusiasm and manifestly widespread interest the Commercial club's campaign for the City Beautiful—a cleaner, more slightly, more healthful and more progressive Fort Wayne.

The occasion was in all respects a notable one. The attendance was large and representative, including more than two hundred business and professional men, city officials, manufacturers, financiers and men from every avenue of Fort Wayne's progressive citizenship. H. C. Rockhill, president of the Commercial club, presided as toastmaster, and the speakers included Mayor W. J. Hosey, Hon. C. M. Brown, of Madison, Wis., C. R. Lane, Dr. L. P. Drayer, Col. D. N. Foster and Rabbi Harry W. Etelson.

Further Plans Disclosed.

Further plans of the Commercial club toward the beautification of Fort Wayne were disclosed in the announcement that during the week of June 2 it is proposed to bring to Fort Wayne for an energetic four-days campaign Prof. Charles L. Zuehlke, of Chicago, who is devoting his efforts toward civic improvement and who has been marvellously successful in aiding other cities to grasp the opportunity for progress along these lines. In this the Commercial club will have the assistance of other organizations and interested parties of Fort Wayne.

Attendance at the banquet burst all anticipated bounds. Two hundred covers had been laid in the banquet room, and this was thought ample to provide for all who would be present. When the banqueters marched into the beautiful banquet room to the strains of the Anthony orchestra, however, there were fifty more than could be seated. Manager H. J. Keenan, of the Anthony, rose handsomely to the occasion. He directed the "overflow" to the main dining room of the hotel, where they were speedily served as elaborately and as satisfactorily as in the banquet room, joining the main party at the beginning of the speech-making.

Menu Was Elaborate.

The menu was elaborate and toothsome, and it was well served and without delay. The Anthony orchestra played throughout the dinner, and when a popular air was reached on the program the two hundred diners gave the music lusty assistance in a vocal accompaniment. Other musical features of the evening were two numbers by the Apollo club of thirty voices, under the direction of John B. Archer.

Rev. Dr. D. W. Moffat had invoked divine favor upon the occasion, and in response to an invitation by C. H. Worden, chairman of the committee on arrangements, Mayor W. J. Hosey spoke by way of greeting. Mayor Hosey declared it a pleasure to give a word of encouragement to the cause for which the gentlemen were assembled, and said that the work of beautifying Fort Wayne is not only important but of larger proportions than is generally recognized. He spoke of the municipal responsibilities in connection with such a movement. Under the present assessed valuation and at the present tax rate, he said, the city ought to collect $300,000 per year, but in fact, he said, it receives as much as $260,000 it is doing well.

Matthew Camp, an employee of the Moon Automobile company, the chauffeur, was crushed to death, and Joseph Fogarty was thrown on his head on a concrete walk adjoining the driveway and suffered a fracture of the skull from which he was not expected to recover. Ernest Freyer's right leg was fractured. HUSBAND THREW LYE IN HIS WIFE'S FACE Charge is Made by Mrs. Whitehurst in Divorce Complaint.

Minnie Whitehurst charges among other things in her divorce complaint filed in the superior court today that her husband, Albert W. Whitehurst, threw lye in her face and expressed the wish that it might put her eyes out.

They were married the second time in September, 1907, and lived together until last January and she added the charges that he has failed to provide for her and their family and that she has been compelled to take in washing to support herself and their daughters. She also says that he has struck and abused her, called her vile names and made life generally miserable for her. Harry H. Hilgemann is her attorney.

Charge Against Juror.

While the jury was being instructed in the suit of James L. Turnbull against Hannah Atchison, Attorney Frank Enrick filed a motion to take the action from the jurors on account of alleged misconduct of George Roberts, a member of the panel. He remarked that "a farmer had no chance in this country anyhow," adding that "the lawyer could make a good spiel but it wouldn't do any good."

Mrs. Atchison, the defendant in the case, lives on a farm and the jury returned a verdict in her favor. The motion to withdraw the case was overruled and one for a new trial is in course of preparation and will be filed.

Wife Gets Back.

Myrtle Kull has filed a cross-complaint in the divorce action instituted by William Kull in which she says that all of the accusations made against her and the result of jealousy and that she never came home with the smell of liquor on her breath or associated with other men or women of bad repute as he charges.

Court Notes.

The claim docket will be called in the circuit court next Tuesday morning.

Judge Merryman was here from Decatur today and heard arguments in the circuit court in the case of the Central Ohio Paper company against the National Duplicating company. The will of Henry Marhenke was filed in the circuit court and all of his property is bequeathed to his widow, Louise S. Marhenke. He stipulated in the will that she must not become security for anybody on a note or bond of any kind.

INSURANCE AGENT ARRESTED.

Sold Policies for Concern That is Pronounced Bogus.

Detective Lenz today arrested Edward S. Raynor for the chief of police at Anderson, where it is charged that he sold a bogus indemnity policy to Dr. B. M. Gower. The prisoner is about sixty-five years old and says he has done nothing wrong.

The policy in question was written to guarantee the doctor against claims for liability on account of personal injuries that might be inflicted by his automobile and contained a clause that all liability caused when a woman was at the steering wheel. A letter from the chief of police at Madison, O., which is supposed to be the headquarters of the concern, is to the effect that it does not exist. Dr. Gower was appointed local physician at Anderson at a salary of $200 a year and $3 for each visit required of him.

SHOT BY DISCHARGED EMPLOYEE.

Elmira Business Man Fatally Wounded on Street.

Elmira, N. Y., April 16.—Joseph McCann, a business man of this city, was shot down on the street here today while on his way to his store. Two bullets entered his body. He was taken to the hospital and is not expected to live. His assailant is supposed to have been Raymond Gill, a young man who had been employed by Mr. McCann and who had been dismissed because of alleged shortages in his accounts. The assailant fled on a bicycle. An effort was made to pursue him, but thus far without success. His bicycle has been found in the outskirts of the city.

DIDN'T WANT TO PAY.

Siebert Thought Morphine for Wife Cost Too Much Money.

Humane Officer Schladroff was called to Sheldon this morning to investigate the report that William Siebert refused to provide proper medical attention for his wife, who is dying of cancer. She requires morphine every day and he said, according to the officer's report, that it cost too much money. He was told what is required of him and promised that he would have a physician to inject the drug twice a day. He is well able to pay for it but didn't like to see his money go that way. He is the same man who served a term for killing a boy in the course of the construction of the Huntington road about twenty years ago.

WILBUR WRIGHT IN THE AIR.

Rome, April 16.—Wilbur Wright made three successful flights in his flying machine near here today, remaining in the air ten, eight and seven minutes respectively. He was accompanied each time by an Italian army officer. A great crowd witnessed the exhibition.

NOT A SENSATIONAL MARKET BUT VERY ACTIVE ONE

July Wheat Closes a Bit Stronger and May a Bit Lower.

Chicago, April 16.—While the wheat market was active today it lacked the sensational features of yesterday. Prices were depressed early, July touching 115¢ and May 125¢, but the close was strong with July, the home of contention, 1½¢ over the previous close at 117½¢. May closed a half cent lower at 127½¢.

Wheat was nervous at the opening today. Patten was said to be a buyer. July opened ¼¢ to ¾¢ higher at 118 to 118½¢. May unchanged to ¾¢ lower at 127½ to 127½¢, and September ¼¢ to ½¢ higher at 106½ to 106½¢.

The story that Mr. Patten has employed a body guard has no proper foundation. The colored man alleged to occupy this position has been at the same door receiving visitors' cards for a generation. He was there before the name of Patten had become one to conjure with.

THE ONLY SUCCESSFUL CORNER.

Washington, April 16.—"The only successful corner in wheat I ever heard of was one Joseph had in biblical days," declared Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, when he was asked for an opinion as to the Patten operations on the Chicago board of trade. The secretary was about to enter the usual Friday meeting of President Taft's cabinet.

"To successfully corner the wheat market," continued the secretary, "you have got to keep buying, buying and buying. Finally the time comes when you can't buy any more and then there is a smash."

MARSHALL SAYS HE DOESN'T SEEK PRESIDENCY

Governor Tells Eastern Men He is Satisfied With Present Job.

Washington, April 16.—Governor Marshall, of Indiana, and Mrs. Marshall arrived yesterday afternoon and are staying at the Riggs house. The governor is enthusiastic over democratic sentiment as it found expression at the banquet in New York, which he attended.

"There was genuine enthusiasm there and plenty of it," he said. The governor was besieged by newspaper correspondents, who asked his views on many questions of public interest, to which the governor responded with ready answers. One correspondent told him of a remark that John Sharp Williams made the other day to the effect that the country should keep its eyes on Governor Marshall in connection with the next democratic nomination for president.

Governor Satisfied With Job.

"I'll have to ask you to cut that out," he said with a smile. "I've got a pretty steady job as it is. It will last four years and then I'll be ready to go back to my law practice."

The governor while in New York promised to write 1,000 words for the National Democratic Magazine. His subject will be "The Tariff," and he will urge the importance of getting back to a tariff for revenue basis.

The governor will attend the Gridiron dinner Saturday night, when he is scheduled to make a speech. As one of the rules of the club forbids the reporting of speeches what he says will never be known outside the circles in which it is delivered.

JAP GRAFTERS ARRESTED.

Tokio, April 16.—A tremendous sensation developed here today with the arrest of nine members of the lower house of the diet. It is believed that bribery in connection with the recent difficulties of the Japan Sugar company is alleged and it is stated that some members of the upper house are liable to arrest also.

RED MEN WILL GATHER.

Warsaw, Ind., April 16.—The Red Men of northern Indiana will meet in Warsaw April 22. The Warsaw committee is making arrangements to entertain a large gathering. The meeting will close with work by the degree teams of Fort Wayne, Wabash and Mishawaka.

GERMAN BANK SUSPENDS.

Duebeck, Germany, April 16.—A local sensation was caused here today by the suspension of the banking house of Luckman & Soltan. Pending the clearing up of the situation the creditors of the firm have refrained from asking for the appointment of a receiver.

LINDEMAN COMES BACK.

Ed J. Lindeman, formerly connected with the local Pennsylvania motive power offices, who has been working in Toledo and Ligonier for the past two years, has returned here to accept the place of cashier of the Bank of Wayne. The Sol Mier institution on East Perry street. Mr. Lindeman is welcomed by a host of friends.

OUR FAITH IN THE Kranich & Bach Piano and the Melville Clark Player-Piano

For many years we have trusted our musical standing to a great extent to the Kranich & Bach Piano and the Apollo Player-Piano. We have given these instruments not only our personal guarantee, but our unqualified endorsement.

We have advised our closest friends and our most valued patrons to purchase a Kranich & Bach Piano or a Melville Clark Player-Piano if possible. And now, after test of time, after years of constant usage, after the sales of hundreds of these wonderful instruments, we are proud to concede to them much of the credit for our success and standing among the musical people.

Every Kranich & Bach and every Apollo we have ever sold has given satisfaction. Every purchaser has remained a friend of the house, because every instrument has proven its worth by the service it renders and has backed up in every detail the splendid recommendation given it by our house.

Although the Kranich & Bach and the Apollo cost a little more than other pianos or player-pianos, they cost less to keep, for the expense in the care of the making is paid back tenfold in the wear and in the pleasure of ownership.

Today we recommend the Kranich & Bach and the Apollo, if possible, with greater confidence than ever, for every day of Kranich & Bach and Apollo history adds just so much more to their wonderful reputation.

MR. GOMPERS CALLS ON MR. TAFT AT WHITE HOUSE

With Other Labor Leaders Makes Known What Laws are Wanted.

Washington, April 16.—President Taft today granted an audience to the members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, headed by Samuel Gompers. The representatives of the organized workingmen presented to the president a brief outline of the legislation which they would like to have enacted. Mr. Taft greeted the labor leaders pleasantly and promised to consider their views.

The labor leaders are said to be particularly interested in an endeavor to have the Sherman anti-trust law amended with reference to provisions that affect the rights of labor to strike and boycott, to secure legislation which will prevent the abuse of the power of injunction by courts, to secure a stricter enforcement of the eight-hour law on all government work, including contracts, and to have enacted a government liability law which will provide for the payment of damages to workmen injured in government work.

Review of Troops at German Legation.

REVIEW OF TROOPS AT THE GERMAN LEGATION IN PEKIN.

Peking, April 16.—Germany's reduction of her military force in China proper is the only material change that has recently been made in the so-called "Legation Guard," despite a good deal of talk of significance of certain reductions made in some of the other commands. When it was announced that the French were sending away a battalion the probability of all foreign troops being removed was discussed, but the discovery that practically all the soldiers of the returning battalion had been transferred to the one that was left placed this French action in the category of non-important events.

Away from Peking the impression prevails that China resents the presence of foreign troops at her capital and within her borders, and when Japan a few months ago announced that she would reduce her force the Japanese press saw fit to construe this as an act of friendship which would be much appreciated by China.

U.S. MINISTER'S BUILDING, PEKIN.

There is no basis for the assumption that the Chinese government continues the presence of foreign troops as an impediment upon her sensitiveness. That this is true, and that there is, in official circles, no desire to see these troops go, becomes evident to any observer who has opportunity to get somewhat close to the real sentiment of Chinese officialdom.

CURE YOUR RHEUMATISM AT HOME

A Michigan Veteran Tells How He Was Permanently Cured of a Severe Case.

Every sufferer from rheumatism wants to be cured and to stay cured. The prospect of the return of the same old rheumatism every year is not attractive to anybody who has gone through one siege. Most treatments aim simply to "keep down" the rheumatism poisons in the blood. The tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills has proved by hundreds of cures that it builds up the blood to a point that enables it to cast out these poisons through the regular channels of excretion, the bowels, kidneys and the skin. When this is done the rheumatism is permanently cured and as long as the blood is kept pure and rich the patient will be immune from attacks of rheumatism.

Mr. David McCarty, farmer and formerly postmaster, of Chapin, Mich., is a veteran of the Civil war, having served in Co. B, 14th Michigan Volunteer Infantry. He says:

"For over a year I had rheumatism so badly that I couldn't turn over in bed. There were sharp pains through my hips and left side, which would catch me so quickly that it often seemed as though my back would break. My appetite was very poor and my kidneys were affected. I could not lie on my back but would have to be propped up in bed on my right side.

"The doctors gave me but little help, for the trouble always came back as severely as ever. I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking a few boxes felt much better. The pain was not so bad and I could eat and sleep better. I gave the pills a good trial and have never had a return of the trouble."

If you are suffering from rheumatism in any form and find that the treatment you are taking does not relieve you, or if you are actually getting worse while taking other treatment, then do not delay but give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a thorough trial. The remedy that cures others will cure you.

A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing more information about rheumatism and other diseases of the blood will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

An old setting hen belonging to Charles Stabaker, near Travisville, Wells county, has displayed an unusual trait. When a cat gave birth a few days ago to four kittens, in the same manger in the stable where the hen was setting, the biddy left her eggs and adopted the four kittens.

Ell Hull, 56 years of age, died from apoplexy in his wagon at Warsaw Thursday just after he had sold a load of corn. His team started to run away and it was not until after the horses had been stopped by persons upon the street that it was discovered that Mr. Hull lay lifeless in the wagon.

Edward Coe and Mrs. Maggie Helms, wanted in Fayette and Madison counties, O., on charges of having deserted their families, were arrested near Zanesville Wednesday. They eloped from Ohio almost a year ago and had been living in Indiana as husband and wife.

Reports have reached Wabash of the death of Zella Nicolaus, who fifteen years ago got into the limelight of publicity as the result of a series of dashing escapades. Howard Gould was one of her friends and among others contributed funds garnered by the schewed beautiful woman who left Wabash to become an actress. She has recently been living in Baltimore for some years.

Mrs. Francis Dundy Baker has fled suit at Wabash against her father, Camillus Bundy, one of the last of the Miami Indians. She is seeking to recover ground which was once the home of the Indians. She alleges that an estate was left her and that her father transferred to her a farm which he now refuses to surrender. Many of the witnesses will be Indians.

Charles Wolfe, who figured in a sensational way at the time of the death of Jacob Mangold, at Decatur, last fall, will be given a hearing in the circuit court at Decatur April 28. The charge will be assault with intent to kill. Wolfe and Mangold were working on the extension of a macadam road west of Decatur. Wolfe became angered at Mangold and struck him over the head with a wagon beam, Mangold dying shortly after. The defense asserts that the man's death was due not to the blow, but to a faulty heart.

Mrs. W. H. Skelton, of Salina, Kan., now visiting relatives at Warsaw, has been advised that her husband, missing for two weeks, has been found ill in a hospital at Cincinnati April 2, while his wife was a patient at Hope hospital, and as he had told his wife of a contemplated trip to Cincinnati, search was instituted there by a brother-in-law, Dr. L. A. Spaulding, of Bluffton. The explanation is made that letters telling of Mr. Skelton's illness had been given to hotel clerks to mail, but that they had not been dropped into the mail box.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

THE CITY BEAUTIFUL.
There does not appear any division of opinion as to the City Beautiful, for achievement of which the campaign has just been most auspiciously launched. The Commercial club banquet disclosed such unity and enthusiasm of sentiment as to extinguish any doubt there may have been that a cleaner, more beautiful and in every way better Fort Wayne will embody a noble realization of a great public desire. There being no doubt of a unanimity of sentiment so far as the spirit that ruled the Commercial club banquet may be taken as an expression of the people's aspirations, the manifest duty of the hour is to make the movement really move.
The obligation to do it being admitted and accepted, how to do it becomes the immediate business of the community. In his address to the banqueters Col. D. N. Foster, of the city park commission, pointed to the practicable and sufficient means by which to go ahead. Without exceeding the constitutional debt limit the city can issue bonds of $100,000 for park, playground, driveway and river improvements. This sum will be found little enough, but a wise expenditure of it will accomplish great things for a start, after which the city will have to make more liberal annual provision than heretofore, not only to maintain what shall have been accomplished, but to make progress with the great general scheme of improvement. Fort Wayne has lagged woefully in park improvements. The yearly appropriations for park purposes have been barely enough to provide for maintenance. Extensions have been practically out of the question, a very lamentable fact when it is remembered that the total park area of this city is very small. Great opportunities have slipped away and are past all possibility of recall. There remain some very attractive possibilities, but they must be taken hold of at once or they, too, will disappear. Public playgrounds, like additional parks, will become increasingly difficult to acquire as time goes on and permanent improvements of a private sort one after another eliminate eligible sites from practical consideration.

A bond issue will permit inauguration of the scheme on a scale commensurate with the future of the city. In no other way can the city come by the money in sufficient amount and immediately, which latter consideration is of utmost importance. Nothing can be gained by delay, though a great deal may easily be lost, if it be agreed that it is to be done, the way to do it having been pointed out, the sooner the actual work of doing be put under way the better.
Not in many years have the leading men of the city displayed such zeal and unanimity in any public project as in the big scheme of beautification and improvement that has just been launched. With this spirit of harmony ruling what seems to be an aggressive purpose to get something done, the thing now to do is to enlist the most comprehensive public co-operation. The people are interested and in all ways possible will be pleased to have an active participation in the project.

The night riding habit has struck Southern Indiana with much show of zeal. Barn-burning, stock-killing and other methods of property destruction are becoming common. The purpose is to compel landowners to reduce farm rentals. The movement is quite uniform in character and methods with the night-riding outlawry in the tobacco districts of Kentucky and Tennessee. We mistake the temper of the state government of Indiana if that species of lawlessness thrives well on Hoosier soil.
Abdul Hamid has devised a way to put the tinware on undesirable office-holders without stirring up trouble in the party. By fomenting a mutiny of troops the sultan got rid of a bunch of timeservers and all is now more or less lovely in the empire. At the same time, it may be remarked, it isn't generally considered prudent for the commander-in-chief to tutor the troops in mutinous conduct.
World scarcity may be causing the bulge in wheat, but it is interesting to observe that when the bottom began to come out of the market in the Chicago board. Bull King Patten, who solemnly avers he is not "running a corner," got furiously busy bolstering prices.
The City Beautiful—may she be not long coming. Meanwhile a little enthusiasm with rake and hoe, shovel and wheelbarrow in the alley will greatly help to clear the way for the triumphant advance.
There are now two custodians of the Indiana state house and only one key. The fight has now centered upon the key.
No city can be called beautiful that menaces its people daily with grade crossing horrors. Elevate 'em.
BRYAN RAPS J. M. DICKINSON.
Declares He Is No Democrat and Does Not Represent South.
Lincoln, Neb., April 16.—Declaring Jacob M. Dickinson is not a democrat; that he does not represent the south, and that he is closely allied with the corporations, W. J. Bryan in the current issue of his Commoner attacks the secretary of war for presuming to pose as a representative of the southern democracy and criticizing President Taft for appointing him.
"Mr. Dickinson's appointment will not break up the south," Mr. Bryan says. "If it has any influence at all it will simply arouse the real democrats to more earnest action that they may rid themselves of the weight of those who constantly strangle democratic legislation and emasculate the platform of the party."
"If the president was anxious to represent the section called the south, and not the people who live there, he might consider the appointment of Mr. Dickinson a concession to that section, although Mr. Dickinson really lives in Chicago. A man who actually resides in the south would be a better representative of the section than one who is merely constructively a citizen, but it is the people of the south, not the geographical area, that deserves representation, and Mr. Dickinson does not represent the people of the south. In sentiment he is entirely out of harmony with the people whom he is supposed to represent in the cabinet."

URGED FOR JUDGESHIP.
John G. Ewing, Known in Fort Wayne,
May Get Appointment.
Washington dispatches announce that John G. Ewing, of Notre Dame, who is well known in Fort Wayne,
is being urged for appointment as a federal judge in Arizona, and in endorsing Mr. Ewing's candidacy W. P.
Breen writes: "Of him James G.
Elaine once said that he was the best informed man of his years that he had ever met."
For more than twenty years Mr.
Ewing was professor of law and political economy at Notre Dame and it is said that if President Taft decides to select a non-resident for the place Mr.
Ewing will have an excellent chance of securing it.

refreshed from his night's rest. He was accompanied from South Bend by

ELECTRIC TALKS
No. 83
Paved Streets as Future Expense

Two very evident conclusions are to be drawn from the facts brought out in talk 82:
First, the owners of property in Fort Wayne have a large expenditure before them in securing a proper paving of the streets and alleys adjacent to their properties before Fort Wayne paving conditions are brought up to the standards of the eight cities mentioned.
Second, the City government has not only to exercise unaccustomed push and incentive to secure this public-spirited improvement of the thoroughfares, but must provide for large annual expenditures out of its own funds incidental to this new construction.
As these large expenditures enhance property values and add to the City's convenience, safety, healthfulness and attractiveness, they are justified to the owners of property by increased values in real estate and justified to all the taxpayers by the fact that their benefits are for ALL the people and not for a favored FEW.
Let us note what is ahead of us, if we would catch up with the procession.
The eight cities cited have 1,073 miles of streets, with 496 miles paved.
If Fort Wayne had the same proportion of paved streets to its total street mileage, it would have over 95 miles.
But 95 miles means fully 50 miles more than it has. The cost of that 50 miles of paving, if we take the mayor's figures for the first 43 miles as a basis, will be over $2,325,000.
That would mean, if the work were done in five years, some $465,000 a year out of the pockets of property owners for their share of the cost of street improvements that certainly should precede other extensive expenditures in making Fort Wayne an attractive and beautiful city.
The City in 1907, according to its annual report, paid nearly $18,000 out of funds appropriated for paving purposes, not to mention $13,139 for new street improvements, and $11,775 for maintenance and repair of streets, no cleaning included.
According to the controller's report for 1908, new street improvements absorbed $10,877 of City funds and maintenance and repairs $11,818, without including cleaning.
In 1907 the City laid 3.5 miles of pavement and in 1908 1.63 miles of accepted paving, or a trifle over five miles in two years, almost entirely at property owners' expense.
It can readily be seen, therefore, that the City's expenses under the items of "new street improvements" and "maintenance and repair" would be very materially increased, if not doubled, were the benefited property owners and the City government to unite in pushing forward toward a better paved city at the rate of ten miles of new paving a year.
That would mean an encouraging extent of paved streets within five years—
certainly not a precipitate rush into the beautifying of the highways of Fort Wayne. As for the byways—the 164 miles of unpaved alleys—other provision has also to be made measured by thousands of dollars.
Between paving improvement assessments and general tax levies the taxpayers of Fort Wayne will thus have enough to pay for in the next few years without making good for losses by City experiments in the lighting field or other fields, where private enterprise and capital stand ready to take all the risks and YET
SAVE THE CITY MONEY.

Paved Streets as Future Expense

Two very evident conclusions are to be drawn from the facts brought out in
talk 82:
First, the owners of property in Fort Wayne have a large expenditure before them in securing a proper paving of the streets and alleys adjacent to their properties before Fort Wayne paving conditions are brought up to the standards of the eight cities mentioned.
Second, the City government has not only to exercise unaccustomed push and incentive to secure this public-spirited improvement of the thoroughfares, but must provide for large annual expenditures out of its own funds incidental to this new construction.
As these large expenditures enhance property values and add to the City's convenience, safety, healthfulness and attractiveness, they are justified to the owners of property by increased values in real estate and justified to all the taxpayers by the fact that their benefits are for ALL the people and not for a favored FEW.
Let us note what is ahead of us, if we would catch up with the procession.
The eight cities cited have 1,073 miles of streets, with 496 miles paved.
If Fort Wayne had the same proportion of paved streets to its total street mileage, it would have over 95 miles.
But 95 miles means fully 50 miles more than it has. The cost of that 50 miles of paving, if we take the mayor's figures for the first 43 miles as a basis, will be over $2,325,000.
That would mean, if the work were done in five years, some $465,000 a year out of the pockets of property owners for their share of the cost of street improvements that certainly should precede other extensive expenditures in making Fort Wayne an attractive and beautiful city.
The City in 1907, according to its annual report, paid nearly $18,000 out of funds appropriated for paving purposes, not to mention $13,139 for new street improvements, and $11,775 for maintenance and repair of streets, no cleaning included.
According to the controller's report for 1908, new street improvements absorbed $10,877 of City funds and maintenance and repairs $11,818, without including cleaning.
In 1907 the City laid 3.5 miles of pavement and in 1908 1.63 miles of accepted paving, or a trifle over five miles in two years, almost entirely at property owners'
expense.
It can readily be seen, therefore, that the City's expenses under the items of "new street improvements" and "maintenance and repair" would be very materially increased, if not doubled, were the benefited property owners and the City government to unite in pushing forward toward a better paved city at the rate of ten miles of new paving a year.
That would mean an encouraging extent of paved streets within five years—
certainly not a precipitate rush into the beautifying of the highways of Fort Wayne. As for the byways—the 164 miles of unpaved alleys—other provision has also to be made measured by thousands of dollars.
Between paving improvement assessments and general tax levies the taxpayers of Fort Wayne will thus have enough to pay for in the next few years without making good for losses by City experiments in the lighting field or other fields, where private enterprise and capital stand ready to take all the risks and YET
SAVE THE CITY MONEY.

Active plans are being made for the forthcoming reception of Rev. and Mrs. Cecil next Thursday night.

A meeting of the committee on program will be held at the church this evening. The members of this committee are W. J. Robinson, A. Berry, Mrs. Martha Ridenour and Mrs. W. J. Hunter. It is expected that the reception will be one of the most elaborate affairs ever given by the congregation.

FOREST RESERVE IS TO BE OPEN SOON FOR ENTRY

Valuable Lands, One-Third Nation's Reserve Area, May be Settled.

Washington, April 16.—President Taft will, in the course of a few months, issue a proclamation and an executive order which will result in the elimination of practically one-third of the forest reserve area of the United States and return many millions of acres of valuable lands to entry and settlement.

By direction of the president the secretary of agriculture has given orders for surveys in forest reserves which will enable him to take therefrom every strip of untimbered land and all lands fit for agricultural purposes. These will be thrown into the public domain and become the property of citizens of the United States who care to enter them under the public land laws.

Pinchot to Undertake Surveys.
Forester Gifford Pinchot has been directed to undertake surveys in the state of Idaho at once, using members of his forestry force as largely as possible in running lines which will establish the exact locations of the untimbered spots in the reserves.

The state of Idaho will have close to a million acres of land returned to entry when the surveys are made, and the president's proclamation finally goes into effect. Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, New Mexico, California and all the great coast states in which Mr. Pinchot has been maintaining his forest domains comprising 196,000,000 acres, will be given attention at an early date.

Practically Victory for Heyburn.
The order of the secretary of agriculture is looked upon as practically a victory for Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, who ever since his advent to the senate has been carrying on a constant warfare against the wholesale placing of lands in forest reserve in the west. During consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill in the senate in the session of the congress recently closed he offered an amendment which would confine the reserves to tree lands alone and make it impossible for the bureau of forestry to place restrictions upon the use of bare spots here and there and to keep them apart from entry under the homestead and other land laws.

With the retirement of President Roosevelt a more liberal policy toward westerners was apparently put in force, for in the order of the secretary of agriculture Senator Heyburn has secured practically what his defeated amendment to the agricultural bill called for.

Pinchot Opposed to It.
It can be stated that the new forest reserve policy has not met with the approval of Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot, who has been maintaining steadily that proper administration of forest reserves necessitated this practical blanketing of a great many wastes where there grew neither grass nor trees. However, following a general policy which was inaugurated with the advent of the Taft administration, through which nearly a million acres of land withdrawn from entry by President Roosevelt have been returned to the public domain, Mr. Pinchot has been required to submit to the new order of things.

At a late hour a luncheon was served. Quite a few toasts were given by the honored guests. Other guests were the Misses Lydia Galmeyer, Emma Rodemeyer, Tillie Wetel, Marie Ulmer and Ollie Stanker and the Messrs. WILL FIGHT PROHIBITION.

St. Louis Interests Opposed to Submitting Question.

St. Louis, Mo., April 16.—Concentrated opposition by the organized commercial, financial and manufacturing interests of St. Louis to the submission of a state-wide prohibition amendment to the electorate of Missouri began in earnest today when four meetings of protest were held. Committees were appointed to urge upon members of the state senate the danger to local interests in the event prohibition is adopted and were instructed to call attention to the fact that 20,000 brewery workers would be thrown out of employment in this city alone and that millions of dollars of invested capital would be lost to the state.

Jeffersonville City, Mo., April 16.—The senate committee on judiciary today reported without recommendation the Humphrey bill providing for statutory prohibition in Missouri. The measure will go on the calendar for endorsement but its final disposition is uncertain.

KEENE'S HORSE WINS.

New Market, April 16.—The three-year-old handicap of three hundred sovereigns, distance seven furlongs, was run here today and won by Hummer. J. R. Keene's Esperanto was second and Pinhead third. Nineteen horses started.

SOCIETY

It matters little if things are dull socially when there's such sunshine as today brought the city early this morning. The majority of people would rather be out of doors, walking, if they boast not the luxury of a conveyance and the wherewithal to make it move than to stay in playing games of any kind, jigsaw puzzles not excepted.

The Fortnightly Bridge club were guests yesterday of Miss Florence Lang.

Mrs. William Hahn has returned from a visit in Cleveland with her daughter.

Miss Bessie Meyer has returned from Olney, Ill., after a three months' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Charles Marahran, of 1303 Pontiac street, will entertain the Ladies' Literary club of the S. P. society on Wednesday, April 21. The subject will be "Should Women Enter Politics?"

Mrs. Peter Pickard has returned from a visit of several weeks in Washington, D. C., with her father George Fowler. Miss Harriet Fowler and Miss Marjorie Pickard are still in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brown, of 1614 West Main street, came home yesterday from a three months' trip to the Pacific coast. They spent some time in Tacoma, Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, of Washington boulevard west, was given a birthday anniversary surprise party last evening by a company of her near friends. Cards and music were enjoyed and later a fine supper topped off the enjoyment of the company.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gregg and Miss Bessie Hassler, of the Hamilton house, are to have as guests over Sunday next, Mrs. Mary Reed, of Moscow, Idaho, Miss Elizabeth Wunderlich, of Columbia City, and Mrs. Fannie H. Turner, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Mrs. Turner and Miss Hassler are sisters.

Miss Irene Kasien, of 502 East Lewis street, entertained the members of the C. J. G. club on Wednesday evening. There were present Misses Stella Jacobs, Viola Brown, Bertha Eckles, Edith Klenke, Martha Wagner, Della Kramer, Ida Piepenbrink, Esther Sar-fen. Miss Kramer will be the next hostess.

Miss Mabel Hull, of West Wayne street, left today for a visit in Palo Alto, Cal., with a school friend.

Mrs. McCune, of Petoskey, for many years a resident of this city, is spending a few days with Mrs. M. F. Porter. Mrs. McCune was at one time a principal of the Hermer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eisele, of Broadway, entertained a few young people at their home on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Emma Eisele, of Springfield, Ill. The guests were Misses Grace Rohrer, Marie Eggenman, Enna Huber, Kate J. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hausbach and Edward Koech and Will Weldon.

A benefit bridge at the home of Mrs. A. L. Randall yesterday afternoon was well attended and the sale of score cards netted a good amount for the free bed fund of Hope hospital. Assisting Mrs. Randall as hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Frank Taft, Mrs. F. M. Jones, Mrs. Oliver Evans, Mrs. George Loesch and Mrs. Ralph Almgren.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester S. Kitch have returned from Lafayette and are at home at 1312 Ewing street. Mrs. Kitch was Miss Agnes Naughten, of Lafayette, and the wedding was a quiet one of Wednesday, April 14. Mr. Kitch formerly lived in Huntington, but he has been a resident of this city for some months and is in business with the Stults Brothers, who conduct a banking, credit and loan business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Seidenbeck went to Chicago yesterday. Mrs. Seidenbeck was formerly Miss Lola Stouder and the wedding took place on Wednesday, but the bride and groom gave their friends the slip and remained with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Stouder until yesterday. Instead of going away at once, as supposed, Mrs. Anna Seidenbeck, of Chicago, mother of the bridegroom, is still the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stouder.

A number of ladies went to the home of Mrs. Boyle, of 46 New Haven avenue, on Wednesday and gave her a surprise. Cards and music were enjoyed and then the hostess returned the compliment of her friends by serving them with a fine supper. Prizes were won at cards by Mrs. Klingenberg, Mrs. Sovine, Mrs. Curtis and other guests were Mrs. Harndorf, Mrs. Mausbaum, Mrs. Jockel, Mrs. Louthan, Mrs. Dunlap, Mrs. Keller and Mrs. Hentzler.

The ladies of the Little Dutch club spent yesterday afternoon with their sewing at the home of Mrs. John Hanna, who entertained in honor of her mother, Mrs. John Bassett, who now lives in Orleans. Mrs. Guy Bassett assisted the hostess at supper time. The rooms had a pretty decoration of yellow snapdragons. The members of the club are Mesdames Sherman Archer, Frank Stewart, Frank Kelsey, John House, Harry Waterman, W. E. Doud, E. G. Riker, William Lawson, Frank Wood, O. O. Thwing, Alex Wilson and John Hanna.

A number of young girls enjoyed a party last evening at the home of Miss Esther Hammi, of Winter street. A contest was played and prizes were won by Miss Mary Storey and Miss Magdalene Geiger. Others who participated in the good time were Misses Katherine Christie, Grace Evans, Gertrude Pater, Almeda Cour, Carrie Rossetti, Mabel Rossetti, Alma Gebhard, Angela Baltes, Dora Rondot. After the games a supper was enjoyed.

The chief interest of the recital at the Morning Musical today was the playing of a visitor in the city, Miss Mary Voisinet, of Union City, who is spending the day with Mrs. W. P. Breen. Miss Voisinet is a remarkably talented young woman who has reached a degree of proficiency in technique and understanding at the piano that is most flattering. Her playing was greatly enjoyed and her sense of rhythm which is extremely decided, was one of the characteristics of her playing which received especial praise. Miss Voisinet played the Gigue-Liszt Faust waltz, a Grieg number and a composition of her own composing.

Johnson-Kelker. The marriage of Miss Gertrude Kelker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kelker, of East Jefferson street, and Mr. Walter Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Johnson, of Columbus, O., took place Thursday evening at the rectory of the Cathedral, Rev. P. F. Roche, officiating. The wedding was a very quiet one owing to the recent illness of the bride. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home with the bride's parents. Mr. Johnson holds a responsible position in the Pennsylvania shops. In a few weeks Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will go to housekeeping.

Pupils' Recital. The first of a series of musical recitals will be given this evening at the Art school building by piano pupils of John B. Effective Spring Blouse

The combination of quite heavy-lace, with the sheerest textile is a feature of the present modes. In this pretty blouse wide venise insertions are set between bands of white mes-saline satin and form a striking contrast with the foundation of airy white-chiffon. Into the tucked yoke of chiffon is set a shaped medallion of helvetic, and above this rises a smaller yoke, to which the collar is attached. The shirred chiffon sleeves have over them loose oversleeves of chiffon alter-nating with strips of the white satin.

CLOTHING OF SLAIN BOY FOUND. Bloody Garments Point to Possible Kidnaping and Murder.

Burlington, Iowa, April 16.—A box containing the blood-stained garments of a small boy, including a complete suit and underclothing, stockings and shoes, was found by the police yesterday. In the pocket of the trousers were a plain gold ring, a rabbit's foot and a number of pictures clipped out of a child's book. On one of these pictures was written the name Lawrence.

In the inside pocket of the coat was a small white handkerchief, neatly folded, as though placed there on the boy leaving home, probably for a visit or to play. The find was reported to the local police, who have taken charge of the box. They believe it is a case of kidnaping and murder of some child.

No missing boy has been reported in Burlington, and it is evident that the clothing had been brought here from a distance and that possibly the body of the child will be found in the river. The blood on the undergarments is plentiful, and is still fresh, as though it had come there within twenty-four hours.

Lockport, N. Y., April 16.—Romaine Saukowski, 15 years old, has confessed before the grand jury here that he assisted in the murder of Mrs. Tony Pierog at her home in Niagara Falls on March 21. He claims that he, with a companion, went to the Pierog house for the purpose of robbery. The woman struggled and Saukowski says they drove a knife in her back and killed her.

AGED FARMER ENDS LIFE. Youngstown, O., April 16.—Levi Crum, 77 years old, a wealthy Austin-ton farmer, committed suicide last night by drowning himself in a pond on his farm. LADY FIRE BUG PUT UP OLD HOLLER IN COURT

Mrs. Belle Hinckle Gets a Stiff Sentence at Sullivan, Ind.

Sullivan, Ind., April 16.—Mrs. Belle Hinckle, recently found guilty of burning the McCammon hotel, was sentenced in court yesterday afternoon after a motion for a new trial had been denied. She left last night to begin her prison term.

Judge Harris, who sat as special judge during the trial, pronounced sentence of two to twenty-one years in prison and a fine of two hundred dollars, then asked Mrs. Hinckle if she had anything to say.

"I am not guilty," muttered the woman.

As the sheriff stepped forward to take her in custody she began to scream. Turning toward the bench she charged Judge Harris with being a party to a conspiracy made up by the local officers of the law, to railroad her to the penitentiary. The officers tried to quiet her but she continued to yell her denunciation of him until she was led from the court room.

GETS SMALL PINCH OF BALM. Victim of Night Riders Sues for $25,000, Gets $250.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 16.—A jury in the federal court of the eastern district of Kentucky, in session at Covington, late yesterday rendered a verdict in the night rider cases on trial before Federal Judge Cochran, awarding the plaintiff, W. S. Henderson, $250 damages. Henderson, a former tobacco merchant of Augusta, Ky., sued fourteen prominent residents of Backen county, Ky., for $25,000 damages for an alleged assault upon him in Augusta during the night rider troubles in that section. Judge Cochran instructed the jury that "any person is entitled to damages for the shock of his feelings caused by an invasion of his rights," and that according to the proof in the case on trial the plaintiff was entitled to damages. The jury was out about an hour. It is understood Henderson will ask for an appeal.

RECREANT DEMOCRAT EXPLAINS Congressman Clark, Florida, Hooded in State Legislature.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 16.—Congressman Frank Clark addressed the Florida house of representatives last night in answer to the resolution introduced by Representative Alexander, of Volusia, proposing the censuring of Mr. Clark for his recent criticism of Wm. J. Bryan and other democrats in the course of a speech on the tariff in the national house of representatives. Denying the right of the Florida legislature to censure his conduct in congress, Mr. Clark said he had expressed himself freely in congress, standing for the rights of Florida in the matter of tariff revision and was responsible for his conduct to the voters of his district alone.

When Mr. Clark finished he was greeted with "Hurrah for Bryan," some of the representatives standing in their chairs and shouting for the Nebraskaan. The resolution will come up for vote on April 27.

WOMAN DYING WHILE DIVORCE SUIT WAS ON

Mrs. Caldwell, Indianapolis, Swallowed Carbolic Acid in Endeavor to Die.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 16.—When the name of Grace Caldwell, defendant in a suit for divorce against her by Lester Caldwell, was called in the circuit court last evening she did not answer and during a conference of her attorneys and the judge a messenger rushed in and said that rather than appear Mrs. Caldwell had killed herself. She had drunk carbolic acid.

A physician who hurried to her home prevented her immediate death and the judge has postponed the hearing of the divorce case until her recovery.

Members of Mrs. Caldwell's family have informed the police that when the date of the trial was set she attempted to choke her baby to death and to kill herself and that she has insisted she never would face the court.

MARION SOCIETY SHOCKED. Action of Well-Known Woman Against Husband Causes Surprise.

Marion, Ind., April 16.—Marion society received a shock yesterday when it became known that Mrs. Nina McCleery Johnstone had begun action in the courts at Chicago for separate maintenance against her husband, Frank A. Johnstone.

Mrs. Johnstone is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McCleery, of this city. Mr. McCleery is cashier of the First National bank, and the family is one of the first in the city. Mrs. Johnstone was married three years ago, and her friends in Marion had no intimation of any domestic troubles.

In her complaint she sets out that she came to Marion last fall at her husband's suggestion for an extended visit with her parents. When she returned home she found their apartments deserted and that her husband had taken up residence at the Chicago Athletic club. Mr. Johnstone is the general salesman for a big silk concern.

CORNS PERFORMS IN MIDDLE-SEASON FORM

Rochester Got to Him for One Punk Hit in the Struggle.

Harry Corns performed in middle-season style in the final struggle with the Rochester team and for five innings he held the Eastern leaguers to one punk grounder that rolled just out of his reach and tempted McDermott to come in so fast that he overran the ball. Not a tally was tacked in his administration and he went to the stable full of pitching honors. Ed Pfeffer succeeded him and got in bad from the start, all because Pitcher Barger took a farewell nap at the ball and batted it to the right field fence. Elston climbed the embankment and was ready to pounce on it, but it rolled in a hole that had been dug for a brace to hold the fence and by the time the groundhog had located it and gotten it out the long pitcher had made the circuit.

Butler opened the eighth with a double. Beecher popped to the pitcher and Lindsay booted McDermott's grounder. Patten hit and scored the catcher. McAvoy was nailed at third on Maloney's grounder and then Curly Blount muffed John Gangel's long fly and this was followed by a hit by Flanagan, scoring three more runs.

In the fifth Blount got on when Corns was rattled, stole second and went to third on Butler's wild peg to head him off and scored on Lindsay's sacrifice fly. In the ninth with one gone Bremer got to first when Butler's throw after he had missed the third strike, hit him in the back. Henry's hit to right sent him to third and Remond's hit to left sent Pfeffer hit for a single and scored the run. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The grilling given his men by Gangel went home and they were full of ginger yesterday.

That Barger also pitched some baseball without an error reminds him he would have gotten by without tally tacked in the innings he pitched.

Henry's throwing was much improved yesterday and three of the men who tried to piff went to the mat.

Channell hit like a house afire in the engagement. Two clean singles out of four times up was his record.

Fremer went to second without any practice and played good ball. It was the first time he had had on a uniform this year.

It was a rattling good game for the early part of the season.

Pfeffer would have gotten by with one run in the eighth if Blount had nailed Gangel's fly.

Barger is one of the best pitchers on the Rochester staff and won more than half his games last season with a tall and team.

The Rochester are scheduled for two games at South Bend and will then take on Zanesville for one.

SPORTING NEWS NOTES.

The Cardinals are looking for a game on Sunday afternoon against any team with players not over 18 years old.

Puri LaRue's father was in the city today and says he has a letter from his son in which he announces that he will make the club as utility infielder. Puri has been playing third in the game thus far.

KETCHER FIGHTS COURT CASE.

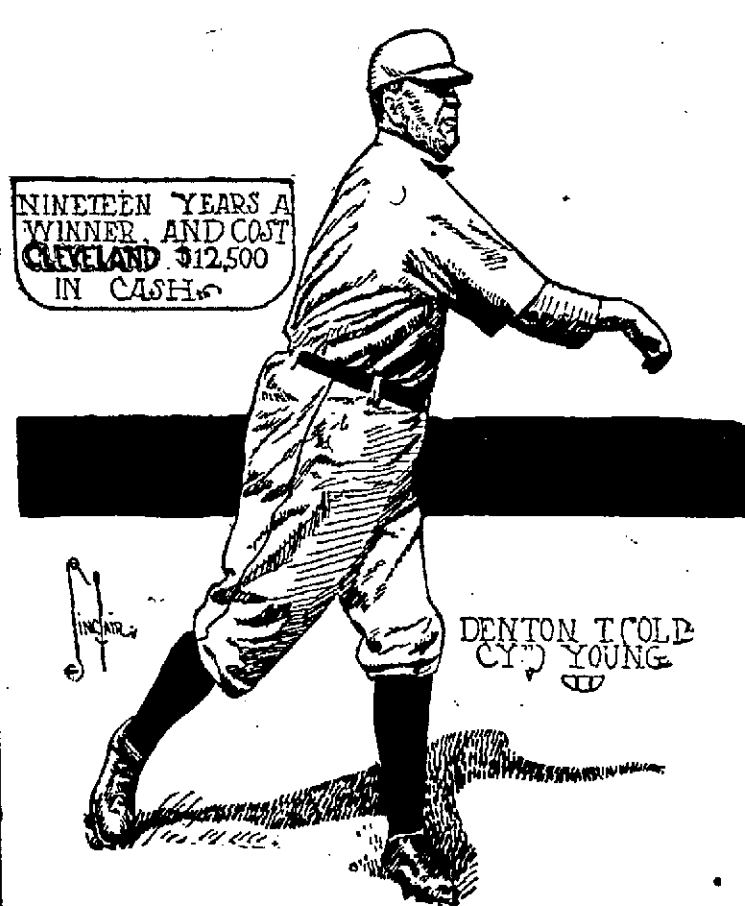

Will Oppose Breach of Promise Suit Brought by Grand Rapids Girl.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 16.—Stanley Ketcher, who has been matched to fight Jack Johnson for the heavyweight championship, will fight the breach of promise case brought against him by Miss Elizabeth Houtman of this city in the courts here. In the circuit court his attorneys filed an answer which is a general denial of the girl's charges and also a demand for a trial of the case.

WALSH ON NEW TACK.

Chicago, Ill., April 16.—Edward Walsh, of pitching fame, wants to be free agent, which is interpreted to mean that he is tired of drawing salary from the Comiskey White Sox. A dispatch from Meriden, Conn., where "Big Ed" hibernates, brought the information that he had sent an application to the national commission asking to be released from the Sox. His excuse is that he was not offered a contract before March 1, as the rules specify.

SUMMERSTIMS SOX IN THE SECOND BATTLE

Billy Sullivan's Crew Gets Lambasted by the Tigers.

Detroit, Mich., April 16.—Eddie Summers was under fire for the first time this season in his combat against the White Sox yesterday and three hits constituted the batting statistics gleaned by Billy Sullivan's crew. On the other hand Dr. White was hit hard by the Tigers and the hits fell in when they did the most damage. Cravath saved a shutout by hitting the ball over the fence with the bases unoccupied. Peltz, for St. Louis, pitched a good game, but inability of his teammates to get hits at the right time was the main cause of the defeat. The score:

GOTCH SHOWS NO SIGNS.

Big Wrestler Waiting to Hear From Hackenschmidt.

Chicago, Ill., April 16.—Frank Gotch, showing absolutely no signs of having passed through a mat bout for the world's title, does not intend to rest. He has been matched to meet Dan McLeod, who was used to maul him about the mat in the days when the champion was a mere beginner, at Waterloo, Iowa, next Tuesday. Smiling and urbane, Gotch received congratulations of his friends at the Morrison hotel yesterday. In spite of his announcement that he soon intends to retire he is waiting for news of Hackenschmidt. This is the chief event he has in prospect, and if it is arranged it may be in Australia, with the Vincent-Sanderson syndicate as the promoters.

Yussif Hamout was depressed and out of sorts yesterday. The Turk is unable to talk English, so could not state his intention, but his manager, Anton Perri, after first saying that he did not know whether the Turk would remain here or depart for England, finally held a conference with Jack Curley and decided to try and get the Mohammedan into the ring with Ernest Siegfried for a bout at mixed styles, one match to be at catch-as-catch-can, another to be at Gracioso-Roman style, and the style of the third to be settled by lot.

PURDUE VICTOR IN FIRST GAME.

Lafayette, Ind., April 16.—Purdue opened the baseball season yesterday, defeating Rose Polytechnic by the score of 8 to 3. Up to the sixth inning the score was 3 to 0 in favor of the visitors, but home runs by Traggesser and Boltz and several singles netted eight runs in two innings. The boilemakers have a comparatively new team, only four men remaining from last year's nine. Shade pitched a good game for Purdue.

AMES LOSES BATTLE IN THIRTEENTH ROUND

Only Twenty-seven Men Faced Him in Nine Innings—Scores.

New York, April 16.—Thirty thousand people, a record-breaking baseball gathering for New York, attended the opening championship game on the Polo grounds between the New York and Brooklyn clubs and watched the home team go down to defeat by a score of 3 to 0 after thirteen innings of marvelous ball.

The game was a pitching duel between Irving Wilhelm and Leon Ames, in which the Brooklyn boxman tired out his New York rival. Ames did not allow a hit in the first nine innings, only twenty-seven men facing him in this time. In the extra periods the Brooklyn batters got to him strongly, making four hits in the last round.

Manager Lumley started his team on the road to victory in the thirteenth inning by tripling. Jordan was purposely passed in the hope that a double play could be pulled off on Lennox, who, however, sliding scoring timely. Two more runs were tallied on hits by Bergen and Burch and Schief's error. The score:

DULUTH COMING FOR TWO GAMES WITH LOCALS.

North Copper Country Men to Go Against the Central Leaguers.

"Darby" O'Brien and his Duluth club from the North Copper Country league will be the opposition for Jack Hendricks' leaguers at the park tomorrow afternoon and the day following and these two games will wind up the exhibition series with organized ball clubs. The club has been in training at Cleveland and is on an ante-season exhibition trip through Ohio and Indiana and secured a date here because the two managers are good friends.

Duluth must have some ball club as one Marion, who is among the pitchers, went nine rounds at Lima yesterday against the Ohio State league club with a no-hit-no-run exhibition. He is slated for one of the games at Fort Wayne, in framing up his exhibition dates. Manager Hendricks sought out a bill of fare that would have all kinds of baseball from the world's champion Cubs and the American league champion Tigers to semi-professionals and Duluth will furnish the class D ball of the program.

The organization is made up of scrappy young players who are fighting for places on the team and the record throughout the trip has shown that they are putting up a good article of ball. The clubs will line up as follows:

Players.	AB.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.

The Influence of Home

Text—Ps. 84:3: "Even thin altars, O Lord of Hosts."

A Sermon by

REV. LOYAL W. MADDEN,
D. D.

[From The Christian Herald.]
The sweetest word in the English language is "home." Spurgeon said, "Home is the greatest of all institutions." Home is one of the relics of Paradise. It has had a place in all ages, and in all nationalities.
The words of the text were uttered by the Psalmist after he had been away from home and the altar of Jerusalem for a time. Although there were many places of beauty and delight that he was privileged to visit, none was so sacred to him as Mount Zion, the altar where he had been accustomed to worship. The home is the first in time of the great social institutions; first in the life of the individual, first in the life of the race. The origin of home goes back into the gray dawn of human history, when the church and state were included in the household, when the householder was teacher, priest and king.

Jesus Honored Home.
The Savior honored home: in his obedience to his parents, who understood his mission to the world; in his miracle at Cana of Galilee, and, above all, in the hospitality of the home of Bethany, where Jesus loved Mary and Martha and Lazarus. The symbolism of home pervades the teaching of the Master in the parable of the Prodigal Son, where we learn the true relation of the sinner to God.

namely, that of sonship. Jesus taught, devout worshippers, without priest or altar, to come straight to God and say, "Our Father." He lifted the veil that hid the mysteries of the future life and exhibited as a reward of the faithful, not the happy hunting ground of the red man, not the Paradise of the Moslem with its dark-eyed maidens, not the unending torment of the warrior, nor yet the solemn Sabbath of the mystic; but he showed us our heavenly home when he said, "In my Father's house are many mansions. I go to prepare a place for you." Take home out of music and literature and it would be like taking warmth out of the sunbeam, sweetness out of the rose, ripeness from the peach, the soul from the body, or God from the sky.

The Indian of a hundred years ago lived in a wigwam, and was no more than a savage. In the era of Plato and Pericles, the gods dwelt in palaces, while the people lived in mud huts. As we ascend the scale of civilization, we see the home changed into a palace, a place of beauty and refinement. Show me the kind of homes that go to make up a nation, and I will tell you something of the kind of government you may expect. Let me hear the talk at night around the fire-side, and I can form some idea of the community. The school is based on the home, not the home on the school; as is the home, so is the school in the community. The highest form of government must be founded on the best kind of homes. Our government was founded on the old Puritan homes of New England.

When the philosophers affirmed that every sage, seer and statesman had a great father or mother, they simply affirmed that the home is the source of civic power and wealth. When Wordsworth said that his parents made vows for him, he meant that there was a mysterious disposition toward love of nature and poetry. Augustine tells us that the tide that flowed down from his mother's life swept his soul forward upon his great career. Lincoln said, "All that I am, or hope to be, I owe to my mother." Thus the home becomes a temple and marriage becomes a sacrament, and we recognize what the child of tomorrow will be.

The Mother Influence.

Among the most fascinating of recent books is the "Mothers of Great Men," which shows Carlyle as only a spark struck out of his mother's genius; how Letitia lent energy, courage, decision and boundless ambition to her son, Napoleon; how that sweet German mother handed her harp forward to Mendelssohn; how from their mothers, Luther had the love of liberty, and Richter his love for writing. The child becomes so saturated with the teachings and holy influences of his early home life that he never can cast them off. He may become reckless, and seemingly indifferent, for a time; but memory links him with his childhood days and their hallowed associations. Even in the midst of a wicked life, he finds himself at times carried back in memory to the glow of the old home altar, on which the fire never burned out, and to the midnight hour, when he again hears the music of his mother's voice and again is thrilled by her loving touch.

The story is told by a jailer, how, one evening before the lights were out in the prison and the convicts had gone from the corridor to their cells for the night, a strong, sweet baritone voice was heard singing in a rear cell:

Gold has its powers, silver will say;
Riches in life hold a wonderful sway;
But there is a power hails from above,
Richer and grander—the power of love.
There strolls a noble—money and land,
Lives in a mansion, costly and grand,
Yet he's unhappy, no one knows why;
Love's a power no money can buy.

The voice of the singer was choked for a moment, then, clearing his throat, as with an effort, he began the chorus:

Love of a mother, for her darling child;
Love of a son, though he's wayward and wild.

The account goes on to tell how audible sobs were heard both in the cell of the singer and from other parts of the corridors. Recollections of the mother-love had been stirred, and the floodgates of memory broken down. For a few moments it seemed as if some of them could not control their emotions; but finally all became still again, and the singer once more began:

Love of a mother, for her darling child;
Love of a son, though he's wayward and wild.
Love that brings joy and tears to the eye,
This love is something that money can't buy.

As the song ceased, those in the corridors rushed to the singer's cell and hands were thrust through the bars to clasp his hand in greeting. Nearly every prisoner avowed his purpose to lead a better life. And when "Home, Sweet Home" was sung they all joined with new hearts, because of the noble resolves of that good hour.

The primary seat of religion is not in the church, but in the home. When the hosts of Israel were encamped, the tabernacle of the families faced the tabernacle. It was an object-lesson in the promise of the covenant. "In thee shall all the nations of the earth be blessed." In the early days of Christianity the church was in the home. The pledge to Noah included his family with himself. The pledge to Abraham embraced his descendants. In the glad day of Pentecost, Peter affirmed that "the promise is to you and your children."

Enemies of the Home.

A distinguished Brahman from India visited England, and was received everywhere with honor. Nobility hunted him, royalty entertained him, crowds of intelligent people gathered to hear him speak; and when he was about ready to leave, one of the most striking things he said was, "The greatest thing I have seen in England is the English home."

And so also with the American home. Yet one of our greatest authorities on social science has recently written: "The home, which has hitherto been the fundamental agent for fostering morality in the young, is just now in sad need of repair." American heiresses and foreign nobles exchange a fortune for a title, and a title for a fortune. The girl has money which she did not earn, and she wants a title which she has not. The noble has a title which, perhaps, he did not earn, and he wants a fortune which he has not. These two agree to supply each other's wants, and so they become man and wife. Publicity is given to the exchange: the minds of our youth are forced to consider wrong ideals of marriage; many are made to stumble, and the holy estate of matrimony is brought into disrepute. Better marry some one near your own station in life.

It frequently happens, too, that the home is brought into ridicule by the comic press and the pleasant columns of the newspapers and magazines. "There is humor that makes glad the heart of man; there is wit that makes his face shine, and there is satire and false criticism that eat out the values of life." To laugh with the home is one thing; to laugh at it is another. A young generation is now being nourished on laughter at the home. Such a generation cannot bring to the future home a whole-hearted respect and devotion. Parents must have a care that nothing that defiles the home, or the thought of home, should enter into the minds of our youth, or, entering, that its influence should be offset.

The much-discussed divorce question is one of the serious dangers that threaten the homes of our country. The ease with which divorces are obtained, and the large number granted, have made a very dark cloud, which is now overhanging our nation. Then there is the business that takes father and mother away from home, and children are left in the care of the dependants. Love for a child cannot be bought. Instead of teaching their sons how to vote, some mothers are striving to become voters themselves. This is not a blow at woman's suffrage; but the greatest honor woman can have is to be queen in the home. How much better for her to keep the springs of the water of life pure in the home than to attempt to filter its muddy currents in the street!

The Home of Our Childhood.

There is a fascination about the old home of our childhood. An old hero, wounded in life's battles and scarred in its conflicts, in his old age longed to be taken back to the home of his childhood. When he stood at last in that little village, what a change had passed over all familiar sights and scenes! The great farmhouse of his childhood had shrunk to a little cottage; something had narrowed the great river to a mere ribbon; the school house, once so vast and majestic, seemed like a rude hut. Some power had touched the mountains and made them tiny mounds. In that hour, with streaming eyes the old hero said, "This world is a bubble that has broken from me; this is not my home. My home is in heaven."

A few years ago, after having been away for some years, I went back to the home of my youth. As we stood and looked at the hills, we really concluded that the water had washed them down, and they were not so high as they used to be. And the creek that used to seem so big and deep was surely now filled up, for it was only a tiny brook, with a little water in it. Then, when I looked at the old church that used to seem so large to me, and when I thought of the long row of teams that used to stand at the hitch-rack, it all seemed so different. That night they had asked me to preach, and when we went into the church the seats did not seem nearly so long as they used to be, nor the room so large. As I entered the pulpit, and we went through the service, there was a solemnity about it that deeply impressed me. When I thought of the men of God who had prayed around that altar, and who in that very altar had knelt down beside me and prayed for me, and when I recalled how they talked to me and tried, in their humble way, to point me to the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world, the place became very sacred to me.

The Heavenly Home.

All the memories of the home that was, and all the dreams of the immortal home that is to be, are but foretokens of that fairer life we soon shall lead. The vague longings for ideal truth, the striving after music that eludes us, the groping for beauty we cannot find, the yearning for love and sympathy and satisfaction, oft denied us here, are God's ways of alluring us to the home that awaits us. Soon some of us, and soon or late, all of us, shall meet God's messenger in the way. He may wear outwardly an iron mask, which hides from our eyes for a little space the face of a glorious angel of God. And he whispers this word, "I have a message for you from home. God wants you. Heaven asks for you. Welcome awaits you at home in heaven!"

BEST TREATMENT FOR COLDS.

"Most ordinary colds will yield to the simplest treatment," says the Chicago Tribune, "moderate laxatives, hot foot baths, a free perspiration and an avoidance of exposure to cold and wet after treatment." While this treatment is simple, it requires considerable trouble, and the one adopting it must remain in doors for a day or two or a fresh cold is almost sure to be contracted, and in many instances pneumonia follows. Is it not better to pin your faith to an old reliable preparation like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that is famous for its cures of colds and can always be depended upon? For sale by all druggists.

Dr. Clara M. Moore, of Denver, has just been appointed physician of the woman's department of the State Hospital for the Insane at Pueblo, Colo. Catherine Collins was recently put in charge of the manufacture of anti-toxin for the state board of health in Georgia. Dr. Sara T. Mayo and Dr. Edith Loeber have joined the clinical staff of the Anti-Tuberculosis League of Louisiana.

OBJECT TO STRONG MEDICINE.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by all druggists.

Mrs. Meredith, daughter of George Meredith, has demonstrated in England her ability to lead a municipal orchestra. The other day at Harrogate at the last minute it was found that the conductor of the municipal orchestra, which is among the best in England, would not be able to take his place, and Miss Meredith stepped into the breach.

WAS VETERAN MAIL CLERK.

Capt. Marcus D. Kirk, Known in Fort Wayne, Dies at Cincinnati.

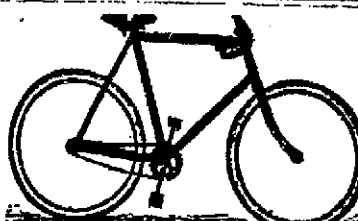

Capt. Marcus D. Kirk, who enlisted from Fort Wayne in company F, Thirtieth Indiana volunteers in 1861, died a few days ago at the home of his son, John N. Kirk, at Norwood, near Cincinnati. Capt. Kirk was about 68 years of age, and death was due to an attack of apoplexy with which he was stricken three weeks ago.

Almost continuously since the close of the war Capt. Kirk had been connected with the postal service. He was for many years a railway mail clerk and served as postmaster at Sturgis, Mich., under President Arthur. Funeral services were held at Cincinnati, and the remains were taken to Sturgis for interment. Capt. Kirk will be well remembered by many of the Fort Wayne Veterans.

RHEUMATISM.

More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed, and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness. The medicines usually given internally for rheumatism are poisonous or very strong medicines. They are worse than useless in cases of chronic and muscular rheumatism. For sale by all druggists.

SITE IS PURCHASED FOR NEW HOLTON SCHOOL

Name Changed When New Structure Goes Up in Tenth Ward.

The Fort Wayne school board has closed the deal for the purchase of a new site for the Tenth ward school which is to replace the present Holton avenue building at East Creighton and Holton avenues. The new location is at the southwest corner of Smith and Pontiac streets, comprising a tract 200x350 feet in area, for which the board has paid Mrs. Marguertha Gopfert the sum of $5,700 under authority given it by the city council at the meeting on Tuesday evening.

It is also announced that when the new school is erected it will no longer be known as the Holton avenue school. It is to be removed entirely from that thoroughfare, and adhering to the old name in that event will, it is believed, result in confusion. The board has not yet determined on a name for the new school, and is for the present designating it the "Tenth ward" school.

The new location is five or six squares southwest of the site of the Holton avenue school, and the change was made desirable from the fact that the Bowser oil tank works has grown until it reaches the school property and the noise interferes with efficient work at the school. The present property will be placed upon the market when the new school is completed and occupied by pupils.

CIVIC REVIVAL CAMPAIGN OPENS

This is due to the fact that many people are able to evade the payment of just taxes. "Every citizen," said the mayor, "should regard the payment of his taxes as a more sacred financial duty than the discharge of even his private obligations." He spoke encouragingly of the awakened public interest in beautification of the city, and warmly endorsed in particular the public playground idea.

Toastmaster Takes Charge.
 Toastmaster Rockhill assumed charge of affairs at this juncture, and expressed his appreciation of the magnificent gathering and the purpose which actuated it. He referred to some things Fort Wayne has done in the march of progress, and cited the Anthony hotel as a new measure of the city's capacity for accomplishment. "And out of this meeting," said Mr. Rockhill, "I trust will come a realization of the dream we have had for many years of a cleaner, better and still more desirable city in which to live."

Hon. Charles M. Brown, of Madison, Wis., lawyer, banker and secretary of the Madison Park and Pleasure Drive association, followed in the principal address of the evening. Mr. Brown's purpose was to tell of the work accomplished in his own city, and he did so in interesting fashion. Beginning with its start thirty years ago, Mr. Brown traced down to the present the construction of parks, driveways, playgrounds and other beauty spots in Madison, through the medium of an organization of public-spirited citizens, the beneficence of a number of wealthy men and the co-operation of the city authorities. It has been on a splendid scale the reclamation of water bogs and low lands surrounding the lakes adjacent to Madison, which lent themselves naturally to beautification of this character.

Summarizes the Work.
 Though still a city of less than 30,000 population, Mr. Brown explained that Madison now has fourteen miles of pleasure drives outside the city, 42 acres in parks within the city limits. For this work a total of $250,000 in bequests has been received in the past seventeen years. Last year the subscription for improvement and maintenance was about $75,000, all the amounts save one coming in denominations of less than $100. The average membership of the association is 800. It is non-political and purely an organization for civic progress. Title to all the park lands and driveways is in the association, but held in trust for the city.

The effect of the work, he said, has been an awakened interest and pride in civic affairs. The habit of giving has stimulated rather than retarded beneficence in other directions. "We have taken bogs and left beauty spots," said Mr. Brown. "The laughter of happy children has superseded the croak of frogs about the former low places near the lakes. The work has not only beautified Madison, but it has advised the city and added greatly to the aggregate wealth. It is estimated that the increased return in taxes to the city from enhanced values as the result of these improvements equals 10 to 15 per cent of the total taxes received. You can make no better investment, even in a financial way than to make your city beautiful, to say nothing whatever of the intellectual, physical and moral betterments you will receive."

Some Municipal Satisfaction.
 Transforming himself for a time into a replica of the modern ballyhoo, Charles R. Lane talked on "Municipal Satisfaction" and exhibited some of the features for city pride and some others of which only larger vision will enable one to now get a glimpse. He referred to some satisfactions which cannot be purchased with money—health, morals, easy conscience—but others are available if the price be paid. He particularized some of the latter, including a new building for Hope hospital, a Young Men's Christian association, play grounds, a municipal assembly room, railroad track elevation and union stations. His plea throughout was for a larger vision in planning for the future. He urged nothing less than a comprehensive scheme for track elevation when the work is undertaken—not merely a dark and noisome tunnel beneath the tracks at Calhoun street—and declared the belief that the people would ultimately endorse the progress which really measured up to the future needs of the great city Fort Wayne is destined to be. Referring to the public playgrounds movement, Mr. Lane said in conclusion:

"This country a hundred years hence will be just what the kind of children we are bringing up make it. Its growing size makes new problems for which growing wisdom and more intensive patriotism will be needed. Are we doing enough for our children when we buy them food, clothing and education? The public playground will provide the influences that make for self-respect, respect for law, respect for others, decency, courtesy and cleanliness. The Drayer vision is a municipal want, so well founded and so thoroughly consistent with civil righteousness that repudiation for past neglect and no excuse is demanded. No parent, no lover of children, no lover of the country home or of the country of his birth, may stand back and say: I will none of that. The vision is a herald of the stability of the republic, the permanence of free institutions. It is manhood elevation and as such takes precedence over track elevation and yet both are pressing duties of the hour."

"Gentlemen, you now have my samples of the kinds of civic satisfactions you can buy—before you. In the language of the Ballyhoo brigade, 'hurry, let us hurry' on to their full fruition and realization."

Dr. Drayer on Playgrounds.
 Championing the movement for public playgrounds, Dr. L. E. Drayer made one of the big hits of the evening and the applause demonstrated that he has enlisted substantial sympathy in the effort to provide breathing-spaces for the boys and girls. "I speak to you tonight," said Dr. Drayer in opening, "of the beautiful—"

"This sweetest little feller everybody knows: Don't know what they call him, but he's mighty like a rose." And I want to tell you that he who helps the child in the matter of early development devices for the child that without which he cannot live. Among all the lines of uplifting work—democratic, constructive and educational—there is none to be compared to the playground. We spend money in dealing with juvenile delinquency, but we spend far too little to prevent that juvenile delinquency. The children have been lost sight of in the construction of our cities. The boy is simply crowded off the earth. He has no breathing place. Everywhere he is confronted by 'keep off the grass' signs. There is no place for children to play, and I declare to you that in the matter of playgrounds and health, the playground is in the very fore in the prevention of the destruction of life by tuberculosis. The construction of a playground today will prevent the necessity of the erection of a hospital tomorrow."

Dr. Drayer told of the inception of the playground movement in Fort Wayne when he was made chairman of the Women's Club league committee which first took it up, and expressed gratification at progress that

OPTION FIGHT GETS STRENUOUS IN ANDERSON

Madison County Battle is Lively—Tippecanoe in Great Disturbance.

Anderson, Ind., April 16.—The directors of the Law and Order league met yesterday afternoon and discussed plans for conducting the campaign against the "dry" in this (Madison) county. Considerable feeling has been aroused by the linking of the names of prominent citizens as being identified with the movement, against their knowledge or consent. The "drys" have held no meeting and will not do so until the organization of the county is completed.

A report was being circulated that the "drys" had decided to agree to a postponement of the election on account of the action of the Law and Order league. This statement was emphatically denied by the "dry" manager and when the time comes they

Worthy of Confidence

An Offer Backed Up by One of the Most Reputable Concerns in Fort Wayne.

We will either cure you of constipation or pay for all the medicine used during the trial. You pay us nothing if we fail. That's a mighty broad statement, and we mean every word of it. We will back it up with our own personal reputation, too. Could anything be more fair and secure for you.

The most scientific, common sense treatment is REXAL ORDERLIES. Their active principle is a very recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless and tasteless; very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in its action, and particularly agreeable in every way. This ingredient does not cause any diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence or griping. REXAL ORDERLIES are as pleasant to take as candy and are particularly good for children and delicate persons. If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try REXAL ORDERLIES at our risk. Remember, you can only get them at our store. "The Square Deal for the Babies"

Goodbye to the milkmaid! She was picturesque, but she scattered germs that weren't. And bad germs are bad for babies. And anything that's bad for babies nowadays must be kept out of the milk.

So we have—Glass stalls cleaned by live steam; cows bathed before milking—sterilized milkmen—and the purest of pure milk.

But that's not enough: milk-modification comes next: doctors fixing milk up in prescriptions for individual babies.

Result: Only 37 deaths out of a thousand babies instead of 420 deaths out of a thousand!

Every mother, and every man or woman who loves babies, will learn a lot of interest and helpfulness by reading Rheta Childs Dorr's article in Police Become Active.

The organization of the Law and Order league has had a tendency to stimulate work in the police department. The officers made a raid on a Main street saloon yesterday morning at 1 o'clock and captured four men and two women drinking in the place. When the proprietor, John W. Newman, was arraigned in police court he promised to close his place of business for good. The place was being operated under a license issued to Marshall Lawson, who had left the city several weeks ago.

John Terhild, who was arrested for allowing people in his saloon last Sunday, appealed his case to the circuit court. His contention was that the room in which the men were drinking at the time of the raid was a "library and reading room" and not a part of his saloon. An additional charge of selling in a room not covered by a license was laid against him. A movement has been started to rid the city of the saloons that have become notorious as violators of the law.

PRINTERS' INK USED FREELY.

Broadside Arguments in Press Open Up Tippecanoe Battle.

Lafayette, Ind., April 16.—Both sides in the option fight are now using the press and a broadside was fired at the "wets" in yesterday's issue of the papers when a complete list of the saloons, their locations and property valuation was published with a list of the tax assessed for all purposes for the year 1908, but the saloon men say that the list is incorrect and misleading. The "wets" are getting ready to make a strong reply to the list and incidentally will show what taxes some of the option leaders and ministers of the city pay to the county and city. The campaign is waxing warmer every day and some startling developments are anticipated.

WHISKY ASTHMA REMEDY.

Doctors Not Aware of It, But Jury Thinks It Is Good.

Wabash, Ind., April 16.—Whisky has been officially declared a proper medicinal treatment for asthma by a Wabash county jury in a justice's court. Peter Heeter was arrested at North Manchester for giving a false prescription for getting whisky at a drug store. He alleged the whisky was for medicinal purposes. He was arrested, gave bond and appeared before Justice Taylor for trial. His attorney produced a sworn statement that Heeter had asthma. Prosecutor Carpenter argued that whisky is not recognized as an asthma cure, but the jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

KOSCIUSKO CALLS ELECTION.

Council Makes Appropriation and Vote Day Fixed for April 29.

Warsaw, Ind., April 16.—The county council yesterday made an appropriation of $2,000 for a county local option election. The election will be held April 29.

The campaign up to this time, however, has been very mild. Practically all the work up to this time has been done by the "wets." Among the men interested in the "wet" side of the argument are the cigarmakers. There are five cigar factories in Warsaw, two of them of considerable size, and the output has been decreased.

"BLIND TIGER" SUSPECTED.

Portland, Ind., April 16.—The police late yesterday afternoon raided what is supposed to be the first blind tiger operated in this city since the local option election a few weeks ago, which placed the county on the "dry" list. The police raided a room over what was formerly Ed Jones' saloon. About forty empty bottles and a large quantity of blackberry brandy was found. The grand jury has begun an investigation.

STARKE FIGHT GROWS LIVELY.

Knox, Ind., April 16.—The local option fight in Starke county is on in earnest, and everybody, including father, is working for one or the other side. Both the Anti-Saloon League and Personal Liberty League, the saloon men's organization, have got down to the actual warfare of the campaign, and long before April 29, when the votes will be cast, every voter in the county will be labeled "wet" or "dry."

TIGER MAN IS FINED.

Marion, Ind., April 16.—John Herring, of Jonesboro, was found guilty in the city court of a charge of conducting a "blind tiger," and Judge Williams gave him a jail sentence of three months in addition to a fine of $50.

AT LIMEKILN CLUB

President Gardner Talks to Members on the Swagger Set.

BARBER SHINBONE'S UNDOING

Why He Went Bankrupt—What Happened to Waydown Bebee and Others Who Wanted to Be the Real Things in Society.

[Copyright, 1909, by T. C. McClure.]
"My friends," said Brother Gardner as he rose up in the Limekiln club the other evening, "I have been looking around de hall for de last half hour to see de face of Brudder Shinbone Brown, but it am not yere. I didn't hardly spect it would be yere. Brudder Shinbone was taken into dis club a year ago. He made his first appearance among us wid a swallotted coat on, and he left his plug hat and gold headed cane in de ante-room. It needed but one look at Brudder Shinbone to tell us dat he was swagger. "While I don't welcome de brudder with effusion, I didn't show no hostility. While I am agin swagger folks, I was willin' to gin him a fair show.

"COULD HE AFFORD TO BE SWAGGER?"
 He has had dat show. Doorin' de year I could have criticised him on various occasions, but I held my peace. I knowed what I was comin' at, and I waited for it. What was to come has come. "My friends, Brudder Shinbone am not in de hall tonight. He am not at home tonight. He am not in de city tonight. I can't 'zactly locate de spot on which his foot am restin', but it am fur, fur away. I don't want to make any mystery of my words, and so I will plainly inform you dat Brudder Shinbone has skipped—skipped—struck de pike.

"Some of you know why, and some of you will ask why. De explanation am easy. De brudder belonged to de swagger set. He had a box at de postoffice, and his wife gin high teas. He wore a plug hat, and his wife had a borsalin rug on de parlor floor. He belonged to a poker club, and his wife ordered ice cream for every Sunday dinner. If a ten, twenty and thirty cent Shakespearean play come along you allus found 'em in de thirty cent seats.

"Brudder Shinbone was a barber at $12 a week salary and no tips. Could he afford to be swagger? I figured it out and said no; he figgered it out and said yes. He went ahead and tried it, and de result am dat he has fled de town a bankrupt. His household goods have been seized for debt, his wife am lookin' for washin' to do, and de swagger bizness am busted higher'n a kite. I am not rejoiced over it, I am holdin' it up as an objick lesson.

"One of de oldest members of dis club am Waydown Bebee. Up to six months ago he was as steady as an old sawmill. If anybody had dun told us dat he would eber make a ass of himself we would have laughed de imputation to scorn. He alined $10 a week, and de only amusement he was guilty of was gwine to de circus once a year. Six months ago his brudder in Gawwin died and left him $250 in cash. When dat money got yere I wanted to take Waydown aside and talk to him, but he wouldn't be taken. He seemed to know what I was gwine to say, and he dodged me. Some others started in to advise, but dey didn't git fur.

"No use axin' if Brudder Waydown am yere tonight. I know he ain't. I know dat he am sittin' in his lonely cabin wid his head tied up in a wet towel to ease de achin' throbs, and it may be dat we shall nobber see him yere ag'in. Yes, sittin' all alone by himself, and once in awhile he fetches a groan like a dyin' boss. For six months Brudder Waydown went in for de swagger life. He jined clubs; he went to de races; he wore patent leathers; he bought a diamond pin; he promanaded up and down in front of banks. At home it was gilt clocks, lace curtains and brick ice cream. De Bebee family cut a swath. Dey reached de pinnacle.

The De Bebee Family.
 "My friends, dar am people who reach de pinnacle to stay up dar. Dar am others who reach it to take one look around and den fall backward head over heels and come down wid an awful thump. De Bebee family reached it to come down. Mebbe you heard de thump a week ago. I has told you whar Brudder Waydown is, but whar am Mrs. Bebee? She helped her husband to swagger. She liked it. She took de fall from de pinnacle wid him, but she got right up and run away wid another man, a man wid mo' swagger to him. Yes, she's gone, and Brudder Waydown may groan like two dyin' bosses, and it won't bring her back.
 "You may sarch under de stove and all de benches and stools in de hall and you won't find Brudder Comealong Johnson tonight. You can't find a man in Paradise hall who am fo'ty miles away and still gwine ober de dirt road at fo' miles an hour. What's happened? you ax. Nuffin much—nuffin but dat same swagger bizness. Brudder Comealong blacked stoves and did whitewashin'. Sometimes he alined $5 a week, sometimes $12. He had de reputashun of bein' level headed. He was nobler known to go to de theater, and de man wid rugs to sell on de installment plan called 'at his cabin fo' hundred times a year and couldn't make a sale. On mo' dan twenty different occasions I have held Brudder Comealong up as a safe man to follow.

"Waal, what's happened? Three months ago he found a passel of papers in de street, and de loser rewarded him wid $300 in cash. We all knowed it, and we all complimented him. Didn't seem to be a case for advice. Nobody doubted dat de brudder would make de best sort of use of dat money. We was all lookin' to hear dat he had bought a Texas lie well and doubled his capital when de surprise cum. He walked in yere one night and presented sich a picture of gorgeusness dat some of us nigh fainted away. I can't remember all he had on, but he was splendiferous. We didn't hardly tech him wid de tips of our fingers. Instead of buyin' an lie well or a silver mine he had started in to be swagger. It was hard to credit at first, but we soon found it was so.

In dis case de landlord, de butcher, de grocer, de ice cream man, de coal man and six or eight other creditors arrived and pulled de bell at de same time, and fifteen minits later de tragedy had been played. WANT RIGHT TO STRIKE.

Paris, April 16.—The French telegraphers held a formal meeting here today and joined the postal employees and the teachers in demanding the privilege of forming unions under the laws of 1884, which includes the right to strike.

DEMOCRATS STILL CONFERRING.

Washington, April 16.—The democratic senators continued their conference today on the tariff bill. The attendance was not large and the meeting was devoted to an exchange of opinions on the various schedules of the Payne-Aldrich bill. There was no effort to reach a general conclusion that would be binding on any one.

THE REFLECTED LIGHT ON THE MOON, PHOTOGRAPHED AT THE JUVISY OBSERVATORY.

There have just been taken at the Juvisy observatory, in France, some remarkably clear photographs of the "lumiere cendree" of the moon, or the light reflected on the ashy surface of the satellite, a specimen of which is presented in the accompanying picture.
 On the photograph reproduced herewith the principal configurations of the lunar world can be discerned, notably those which from the outline of the human hand, below the great illuminated circle of Tycho Brahe. This photograph was taken with a sixteen centimetre objective with an exposure of ten minutes.

Worn Out Minds.

If You Ill Treat the Brain, it Will Ill Treat You. If Properly Nourished, it Will Give a Bright Intellect and a Contented Mind.

The brain needs nourishment just as the body does—not stimulants to make it work faster and longer, but food to make it stronger and better.

If you worry, can't sleep, are forgetful, imagine your friends dislike or neglect you, are always expecting trouble, your brain lacks proper nourishment.

Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer is what worn out brains need. It supplies the parts which years of overwork, dissipation and excesses have burned up. The hungry brain eagerly absorbs these properties. The first dose helps—a reasonable treatment course. It promotes sleep, restores intellect and drives out worry and gloom.

These are facts—we give you the proof. Don't think your brain is different from those cured by Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer or that your case is hopeless. It will cure you as it has others.

Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer contains neither Alcohol, Morphine or Chloral or other harmful or habit-forming drug, therefore may be taken without fear of harm or habit.

Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer certainly saved my life. I thought I was going crazy. I had a terrible fear at night and imagined all kinds of horrible things would happen even that I would die and would cry out at least noise.

At one time I was so bad I could not speak my name or know where I was. Four doctors treated me but gave me no help. I certainly believe I would have killed myself if I had not used Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer which completely cured me. I am now as well as I have ever been—thanks to Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer.

Sincerity Not a Savior:

The Conversion of Saul.

Golden Text—Acts 9:1: "He fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?"

[From The Christian Herald.]

Saul the Jew. He was an Old Testament man. He had a high pedigree, being born a Roman citizen.

He was learned, having had for his teacher the great Gamaliel. He was commissioned as a persecutor of the Christians by the high priest and council.

He was blind in judgment through prejudice.

Saul, his Hebrew name.

Paul the Christian. He became a New Testament man.

As a Christian he was born of the Spirit.

The truth as it is in Jesus was revealed to him from heaven.

He was commissioned to preach the Gospel to the Gentiles by the Lord himself.

His eyes were blinded that he might have a clear vision of the soul.

Paul, his Gentile name.

Dr. Joseph Parker says: "Christianity does not oppose Judaism. It supersedes it. Christianity takes up Judaism, realizes all its types and symbols and ceremonies. Judaism is the dawn, Christianity is the full noonday. Christianity is the purple autumn bringing to maturity and sweetness all the roots and fruits of the Judaism which it followed and consummated." Paul, then, as a Jew, was only partially developed; as a Christian, he reached "fulness of stature."

A Contrast Ending in Harmony.

Standing in Jerusalem on a midsummer day in A. D. 37, one might have seen two travelers taking their departure, one to the south, the other to the north. The one going to the south rode in a chariot with royal trappings; the purpose in his heart was to find Jesus, and to that end he had a roll of the Scriptures, which he searched as he rode along. The traveler going toward the north also had a roll, a commission not to find Jesus, but to kill him in the person of his followers. The traveler to the north probably rode on horseback to the wondrously beautiful city of Damascus, one hundred and forty miles distant. The traveler toward the south had at least a thousand mile journey before him. One was a black man, the other a white man. A teacher sent of God, Philip the evangelist, appeared to the southern traveler, and a great light dawned upon his soul and he became a follower of the Lord Jesus. The Great Teacher himself appeared to the northern traveler and also a great light dawned upon his soul, and he became a follower of the Lord Jesus.

And these two travelers, going in opposite directions, with purposes and spirits totally diverse, came at last to the same goal, the recognition of Christ as their Savior and Master. One is the treasurer of Candace, the first Christian of his race; the other is Saul the persecutor, afterward the great apostle to the Gentiles.

Paul's Account of the Journey.

It is interesting to note what the apostle Paul afterward said about this journey. When he stood upon the steps of the Castle Antonia, in chains (Acts 22:1-11), having been apprehended by the Roman captain at the instigation of the Jewish leaders as one who was creating sedition, Paul, begging leave of the captain to speak to the people, told them of the great light from heaven which had fallen upon him and the voice from heaven which had reached his soul with its winning prayer. He told them also of his being led by the hand, being blinded in the eyes, that he might be shut in with God. And he told them how, in Damascus, he had been received into the fellowship of the saints by the laying on of the hands of Ananias, directed of God to do so. He told them also how later he had received a commission from God to preach and teach in his name.

King Agrippa and Festus.

Again Paul told the same story when he stood before King Agrippa and the "most noble Festus" (Acts 26:1-18), on which occasion Paul was given a chance to plead his cause. Naught of detail did he withhold from

BURNED BY GASOLINE.

Henry Rose Suffers Injury and Loss at Convey, Ohio.

Henry Rose, of Convey, Ohio, who came to the city yesterday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rose, of 1326 East Wayne street, brought news of a fire in which he was badly scorched in a gasoline blaze and suffered the loss of his business at Convey. Rose entered the building, which was lighted by a gasoline plant, and when he struck a match fumes from a leaking pipe ignited, singeing his face and setting fire to the building. Fearing an explosion, the fire department allowed the building to burn. Rose was formerly employed by the Fort Wayne Saddlery company.

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since its discovery one year ago, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles can now avail themselves of the special 50-cent package, recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50-cent package and the regular $2 jar may now be obtained in Fort Wayne at Meyer Bros. Co., and other leading drug stores.

Samples for experimental purposes may be had free of charge by writing direct to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York city.

CURED WITHOUT OPERATION.
I was ailing for 30 years, tried many doctors, ready-made remedies, mall treatment—everything without avail. Local physicians agreed there was no cure for me except the knife. I WAS ON MY WAY TO THE HOSPITAL when I read of the United Specialists and was profoundly impressed with the superior skill of their expert who revealed my history so far back that I stood enchanted; described every ache, pain and symptom better than I could. At a glance he read my complaint like an open book. Here was a revelation! His treatment and remedies were no less a surprise; not only different from any I ever had, but so effective as to make me think that the easiest task of all is the curing of chronic disease by these adepts. I am very grateful for what the United Specialists did for me.

MRS. JOSEPH TEST, 321 West Main St., Fort Wayne.

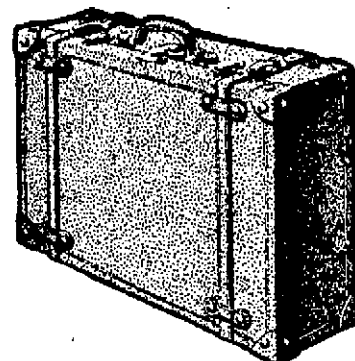

SENSATIONAL CURE.
Every Tom, Dick and Harry gives medical advice, but some diseases are even physicians and nurses into slippers! Such was the malady of Mr. Louis Brown, a well-known veteran near Auburn, Ind. No one who saw him would believe he could be much benefited. His affection kept both hands and other parts in the shape of solid crusts, disabling him from the lightest work. He gnawed unwanted remedies as the drowning child a straw. His suffering was indescribable and he was fast losing faith in Medical Science, when he consulted the United Specialists, who remove the cause of chronic ailments instead of treating the symptoms, and thus restored Mr. Brown to the enjoyment of perfect health, than which there is nothing greater on this earth.

HOLES EATEN TO BONE.
KNEE TO TOES ONE SOLID SORE—Over a year ago my knee and leg were badly bruised; a small pimple formed; in spite of what the doctors could do and all the home remedies I used it spread all over my leg and foot; last winter it got so bad I couldn't work; great holes were eaten in the flesh, down to the very bone; two of the doctors I consulted said my leg would have to be taken off, as it never would get better. Knowing what good work had been done for many sick people by the United Specialists, I was greatly pleased to learn on consulting them, that they made just such troubles as mine a specialty. I began the treatment last January and in a few days had improved so much, that I got a position as gate tender at the Fairfield Avenue Railroad crossing on the Wabash. I have never lost a day's work since on account of my leg, and am getting better right along. JOHN LECOQUE, 444 Bass St.

WE GUARANTEE CURES TO BE LASTING.
Mrs. Edward Snyder, 235 Main St., City, who had suffered for months from severe nervous trouble, says: "I certainly have improved very much under your treatment."

Through the latest scientific researches, both by improved instruments and methods the doctor is enabled to discover the true nature of the disease and locate the organ or parts afflicted. Many diseases and complications which have heretofore proven most obstinate to the medical profession yield like magic under his skill and systematic treatment.

CATARH IS THE FORERUNNER OF CONSUMPTION.
Mr. August Kellenberg, of New Haven, Ind., a railroad man, says: "I was afflicted with stomach and bowel catarrh for some time, and during last summer the trouble became so bad that I had to lay off from work; I was weak and dizzy with constant pains in my head and body; tried different means of cure during this time, but obtained no benefit until I placed my case with the United Specialists, 136 West Wayne St., last September. The medical and electric treatment I obtained at this famous establishment rapidly made me much better and I soon was able to take up my work. At this time I am feeling fine and am a well man again."

BOWSER SAVES COAL

Believes Heat Can Be Preserved, and Recipe Is Free to All.

GETS MATERIALS FOR JOB.

After an Explosion and the Loss of His Eyebrows He Threatens Wife—She Calms Him and Tells Her Hubby He Is Not Well.

[Copyright, 1909, by T. C. McClure.]

It was mid-afternoon, and Mrs. Bowser sat sewing and thinking that it had been a whole week since Mr. Bowser broke out in a new spot, when the basement bell rang, and the cook came up to gasp out:

"It's here, mum!"
 "What is here?"
 "Something to bring on an earthquake such as they had in Italy."

"Nonsense! Is there anybody at the door?"

"There is, mum. It's a red headed boy, and he's got a horse and wagon and some barrels and wants to know where he shall put 'em. I asked him if they were bombs, and he said he guessed they were. If they be, then I quits my job. I had a sister blown up by a bomb, and I shall never forget how her arms and legs and yells went shooting up sky high."

"IT'S HERE, MUM."

Mrs. Bowser went down to the door and met the red headed boy and asked him if there wasn't some mistake.

"Not if your name is Bowser," he replied.

"But what have you got in the wagon?"

"A barrel of sand, another of lime and something in a bag. Boss got the order by telephone."

"Is it to fix a cellar with?"

"Mebbe 'tis, but I can't say. You see, I don't enjoy the confidence of my boss altogether. There are times when he seems to doubt me."

"Well, if you are sure they are for this house you may put them down cellar. I remember telling Mr. Bowser some time ago that there were holes in the concrete bottom, and I guess he intends to have them filled up."

The boy had a tough time getting the barrels down cellar, but he accomplished it at last, and when Mrs. Bowser told the cook that it was nothing but stuff for concrete that female ceased to tremble and have visions of dismembered bodies sailing through the air. Mr. Bowser arrived from the office at the usual time, and the first thing he asked was if the barrels had come up. He was informed that they had, and then Mrs. Bowser asked:

"You are going to get somebody to concrete over the holes in the cellar, aren't you?"

Coal and Wood Giving Out.

He made no answer until seated at the dinner table. Then he assumed a look of wisdom and asked:

"Mrs. Bowser, how long do you suppose the hard coal supply of the United States is going to last?"

"Why, I saw something about that in the papers the other day, and I believe it was estimated that in 120 years the last ton would be mined."

"Yes, those figures are correct. By that time the wood will also be gone, and we shall be a fireless nation. Think of that—not even enough fire to warm up our chicken soup!"

"But won't Yankee ingenuity have invented a new fuel before we have reached that date?" asked Mrs. Bowser, with considerable anxiety.

"Ah, ha! So you have heard, after all! It does me good to hear you asking such a question. Now, I know that you will be in sympathy with my latest move. First, Mrs. Bowser, we must husband the supply of coal and make it last just twice as long. Next we must invent a substitute. I shall only deal with the one problem at present."

"Is that what the stuff in the barrels and bag is for?"

"Exactly, my dear. When I get an idea into my head I want to go to work at it at once. For a thousand years science has been at work on this tremendous problem of how to save coal and still extract the same amount of heat and power. Let me tell you that 44 per cent of the heat is wasted. It is drawn up the chimney and dissipated in the air. Think of that—44 per cent, or nearly one-half! What if that 44 per cent could be saved?"

"You don't think you can do it, do you?"

"I do, yes, ma'am. Samuel Bowser is going to do that very thing. I've got it all figured out. Within a week a nation will be blessing me—coal bills cut half in two from Maine to California; steamers crossing the oceans with half their coal bunkers empty; all coal miners getting at least three holidays a week. Mrs. Bowser, do you see how the thing is going to work out?"

"But I wish—wish you wouldn't explain that to me."

"What?"

"I wish you wouldn't explain that to me."

"What?"

"I wish you wouldn't explain that to me."

"What?"

"I wish you wouldn't explain that to me."

"What?"

"I wish you wouldn't explain that to me."

"What?"

"I wish you wouldn't explain that to me."

"What! You talk that way instead of encouraging me! You wish me to keep hands off and leave some one else to reap the glory!"

"But you will blow some one or something up and then lay the blame on me."

"Woman, don't be an idiot. I have never blown anybody or anything up, and I have never blamed you. I'm not that kind of a man. I can't understand your position at all, but that makes no difference. I shall go ahead just the same. Mrs. Newton didn't want Sir Isaac to lie on his back in the orchard, see an apple fall to the earth, instead of shooting into the air, and thus discover gravitation, but he paid no attention to her and gave the world one of its greatest sciences. I am now going up to get an old suit on and experiment. If I succeed, and I know I shall, you needn't try to sneak in and take any of the credit."

"I've—I've got a dollar saved up, and I'll give it to you if you won't experiment," she said in a last desperate attempt.

Mr. Bowser turned on her, but he couldn't speak. He simply looked the contempt he felt for such attempted bribery and passed upstairs to change his clothes. He was down in fifteen minutes and took a dive down cellar and was soon heard pounding away at the barrels. The cook heard him, but she had seen cement before and knew there was nothing about it to explode. When the barrels had been unheated their contents were mixed in a heap with the stuff from the bag. Then the water was poured on and a hoe used to make a bed of mortar. Something like half an hour had passed when Mrs. Bowser came down cellar to ask:

"You won't fool with the gas meter, will you?"

"Fool! Fool! Woman, I want you to understand that I'm a man that doesn't fool with anything! Go back upstairs! You'll get none of the fame or glory out of this!"

His Eyebrows Singed.

Five minutes later she heard him open the door of the furnace and shovel in some of his compound. Ten minutes after that an acrid smell began to permeate the house. She shut off all the heaters, but it continued to puff out until she had to open the windows. She started down cellar to ask what was the matter, but ere she had made the descent there came a great puff of flame that shot the furnace door open and carried Mr. Bowser off his feet, and then she flew upstairs, and he followed, choking and gasping and feeling for the eyebrows that had been singed off. When they had reached the front door and thrown it open and stood in the vestibule she asked:

"What did you do to the furnace? Hear it roar! The house will be burned over our heads!"

"It's—it's that durned compound!" he managed to reply between his gasps.

"But turn in the fire alarm and get the engines out!"

Fortunately for them a fireman who was on relief happened to be passing, and he came running in and clattered down cellar and up and down again with a pail of water from the kitchen, and after about twenty minutes he appeared, wiping his eyes, and announced that all danger was passed, but that they had better keep doors and windows open for an hour yet. Then he added, as if an afterthought:

"What blamed idiot poked that stuff into the furnace?"

"I was trying to save half the coal," replied Mr. Bowser.

"Better pump some sawdust into your head and save half your brains, old man!"

It was half an hour later, and the house had become habitable again, when Mr. Bowser stood up stiffly and began:

"Woman, this is the dead line! I know that you would."

"There, there," interrupted Mrs. Bowser as she held up a finger, "don't try to say it! You are not well tonight. Some other time." M. QUAD.

THE SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

SEASON'S TRAFFIC BUSINESS OPENS WITH A RUSH

Ticket Receipts Much Better Than a Year Ago—The Railroads.

Passenger business for the opening of the traveling season has assumed a much better phase than ticket agents anticipated and the men behind the windows are reporting greatly increased ticket receipts. One of the agents this morning remarked that he had run $2,000 ahead of the same period last year and that prospects are for a continuance of this condition.

The travel east and north during the past winter months was now and heavy, but this is picking up and the western and southern travel is taking unlooked for bounds. The increase is not a result of extensive traveling, either, for the agents report that the local sales are the ones most augmented.

It was to be expected that the ticket sales at the beginning of the season anyway would be light, because of the strained industrial conditions in this vicinity and the officials were expecting the greater share of the passenger traffic business more from the farming people.

COSTS LESS THAN 10 CENTS.

Automatic Switch Signal a Great Inexpensive Advantage.

Tests recently conducted upon the automatic switch signal at Inwood along the Pennsylvania lines revealed the fact that it costs a half-cent less than ten cents to run one of the signals for one day. While the test was not officially ordered it was taken as a step in the Pennsylvania plan to erect big power houses to supply the current for the electric signals instead of the ordinary gravity batteries. In making the test, account was taken of every bit of material used and the result was somewhat of a surprise. Signal Supervisor Hill, accompanying the inspection party, is using this thought as one of his topics in the general discussions being held.

PLANS FOR THE YEAR.

J. W. Burns Expected Home Today from State Meeting.

J. W. Burns, general secretary of the Railroad Y. M. C. A., is expected to return some time today from Indianapolis, where he has been attending the annual state meeting of the general secretaries and physical culture directors. The plans for the year's work have been discussed and Mr. Burns will likely bring with him some new and good ideas.

Introduce a new scheme. Heretofore the rate has been one dollar for the round trip to points not exceeding a hundred miles but this season the rates will be graded on the basis of one fare for the round trip, no rate to exceed one dollar and none to be less than 25 cents. It is believed this system will be found much more advantageous to the travelers.

JOHNSON FOOLED 'EM.

Walter Johnson, of the master mechanics' offices of the Pennsy shops, who was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Kelker last evening, slipped one over on his many friends, to one of whom he tipped off misleading information as to the place of their honeymoon and a crowd gathered around the Pennsylvania depot last night at the time supposed he was going to leave. The crowd waited and waited, however, but Mr. and Mrs. Johnson did not show up. He is expected to return to his work next Monday morning when the boys will have an opportunity for revenge.

USING STEAM AGAIN.

Old Machinery Called Into Service to Pump Wabash Water.

The steam apparatus discarded at the time the electrical motors were installed to pump the St. Mary's river water to the Wabash shops has been called into service again as the result of the fire Thursday morning, when the pumping station, with the new electric motors, was completely burnt down. A temporary frame building is being erected to serve until a stable one is built. It is believed that electric motors will again be installed for pumping uses.

ALL STEEL RAILS.

Ann Arbor Line Places Orders for Expensive Equipment.

The Ann Arbor and Toledo line has placed with the Pullman Palace Car company an order for two all steel passenger trains to be operated between Toledo and Frankfort during the summer season and the first steel cars to be run through Michigan. The cars will be lighted by electricity and the only wood used will be in the interior paneling. The equipment will include four coaches and two cafe cars. The road has also ordered 6,000 tons of 55-pound steel rails.

RESETTING PART OF TRACK.

Water Undermining Wabash Tracks Near Station.

In some unknown manner water presumably from the watering tank has crept under the boarding along the Wabash depot and rendered the trackbedding unstable. Men this morning tore up part of the track and re-set it and are endeavoring to effect a drainage of the water.

A HUNDRED CAR TRAIN.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 15.—A record train for the Big Four system was hauled from Paris, Ill. to Terre Haute the other day, when one engine brought an even 100 cars the 21 miles in 55 minutes. The cars were empty, 60 of them coal cars, 37 box and 3 flats. The train was six cars more than a quarter of a mile in length. The train weighed 1,714 tons and had a carrying capacity of 4,000,000 tons. Engine No. 6622, which hauled the train, is one of the largest on the road, and its cylinder is 23 by 32. The coal cars were distributed to mines near Terre Haute and the box cars to Terre Haute factories.

INTERLOCKING PLANT.

The Lake Erie and Grand Trunk roads, which cross each other at Stillwell, near Laporte, are planning for the installation of an interlocking plant to be operated at the crossing in the place of the semaphore gates, which have been in use for some time. In the event a change is made the Lake Erie will probably be obliged to make some changes in its tracks. The interlocking plant would probably be of little use to the Lake Erie, inasmuch as nearly all its passenger and freight trains come to a stop at that station.

TWO INJURIES IN SHOPS.

H. Galland and J. S. O'Day, of the Pennsylvania machine shops, were injured seriously enough this morning to require the attention of a doctor and they will be laid up for several days. Mr. Galland was struck in the right eye by several pieces of flying steel and Mr. O'Day suffered a severe bruising of the great toe on his left foot.

TWO MONSTER ENGINES.

Two more of the monster engines of the type made by the Baldwin company, of Philadelphia, passed through the city this morning on a Pennsylvania freight. They are being shipped to the Great Northern lines. The engines weigh 300 tons and are 85 feet long, being of the largest type made in any part of the world.

OPEN MEETING SATURDAY.

Two Officials of International Machinists Coming.

Friendship lodge, No. 70, International Association of Machinists, will have an open meeting at the assembly room of the court house Saturday evening, at which they hope to have every machinist in the city present, whether a member of the union or not. Skilled and unskilled laborers in other industries are also invited. The speakers will be J. J. Keegan, general organizer, and William J. Pfeiffer, business agent, of Indianapolis, and after the speaking the members of the union will take their guests to Nimrod hall and entertain them an hour or two. The following compose the committee of arrangements for the affair: L. H. Michels, chairman; L. D. Miller, J. C. Noll, Valentine Werkman and G. F. Rogge.

OPEN TO ALL.

Everyone Invited to Meeting of Women's Label League Tonight.

Everyone is extended an invitation to attend the meeting of the Women's Union Label League in the Elektron building this evening. Officers of the labor federation will be present and deliver talks and refreshments will be served to all. The idea of the gathering will be to strengthen interest in the body.

BIG BALL TONIGHT.

The big sixth annual grand hall of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will be given this evening in the Minnet building. The sale of tickets has been very large.

PARNIN IS HERE.

Frank P. Parnin, traveling passenger agent on the Nickel Plate is spending a few days with his family in this city.

PAY DAYS SATURDAY.

Pennsylvania and Grand Rapids and Indiana men are awaiting the pay cars which are scheduled to arrive tomorrow.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

B. Prange has taken employment with the Western Gas Construction company.

The Rochester baseball aggregation was taken to South Bend this morning over the Pennsy route.

F. M. Hughes, the Pennsylvania air brake machinist, was reported to be on the sick list today.

C. F. Kippe, foreman of the Pennsy pattern shop, will go to Chicago tomorrow on a business mission.

S. F. Bowser and C. A. Dykneberg, of the Bowser Oil Tank works, left today for Toronto, Canada, for a business visit.

The special train from Chicago bearing the ladies of the D. A. R. going to Washington passed through the city this morning.

J. R. Bender, who has been serving as a laborer in the boiler department in the Pennsy shops, has resigned his place to go to North Dakota.

G. A. Marchand, who has been off duty for several days nursing an injured toe, returned to work as a Pennsy machinist this morning.

Joseph Kinehart, a boilermaker at the Western Gas Construction company's plant, lost a little finger in an accident yesterday afternoon.

J. L. Berry has joined the "Teddy Bear" baseball nine and has been given the first sack position. He is employed in the Pennsylvania machine shop.

R. Hartnett, the former Pennsylvania car machine shop man who is on the retired list, went to Tiffin, O., this morning where he was called by the death of his sister.

Adam LaMar, chief car inspector of the Pennsylvania, returned from Philadelphia at noon today. He went to that city several days ago on business connected with the department.

Brewery workers, beer bottlers and drivers are asking for a slight increase in wages and it is believed the differences between the men and the bosses will be settled shortly.

E. J. Little, who has been confined to his home with sickness for the last few days, has resumed his place at the head of the publication department of the Bowser works.

Kent Blair has taken the place of night ticket agent at the local Nickel Plate offices, succeeding P. Thompson, who has been promoted to the transferring desk in the freight offices, the position formerly held by Ed Erwin.

A cylinder head on engine No. 414 drawing the westbound Wabash passenger No. 3 blew out last night at Napoleon, O., and an engine was sent out from this city to assist the train here. This is the same engine that figured in a similar accident at Defiance a week ago.

The Bowser Blues have chosen P. Lanco as the director of their fate on the ball diamond this summer and the choice agrees with everybody. The Blues and the Grays will meet tomorrow afternoon on the Winter street diamond for the first game of the season. Game called at 2 o'clock.

G. M. Rowell, traveling freight agent of the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis road, was among the visitors in the city today. William Warner, traveling passenger and freight agent of the Salt Lake road, was also visiting here.

Commercial Freight Agent L. M. White, of Detroit, visited at the local Wabash freight offices yesterday.

A new freight station has been opened at Gary by the Gould lines and it is understood that other lines are preparing plans for freight terminals at that point which will cost several million dollars. Thousands of laborers have gone to the city and the Pittsburgh-Chicago lines connected with Gary are preparing plans for brick passenger stations.

The Baltimore & Ohio, it is understood, proposes to advance the salary of its officers and employees, following the New York, New Haven & Hartford road. The announcement that these two roads will restore the salaries of all employees who were reduced has put an end to rumors circulated recently that all employees of the larger railway systems will be compelled to accept a reduction of 10 per cent this year.

PETER CERTIA TOOK WIFE'S SHOES AWAY

She Had Him Arrested and He is Held—The City Court.

After Peter Certia, a laborer living at New Haven, had been stowed in a cell at police headquarters this morning pending a trial of the charge of public intoxication against him, his wife asked the officers to try and locate a pair of shoes which he had taken from her and left her with a pair of old ones that were not fit to wear.

Certia has been up before and for a week he has been on a tear and his wife complains that he has abused her shamefully and smashed up things since he began drinking. He said he was not guilty and asked to have witnesses summoned.

Woman Sent Over.

Marie Goodall, an inmate of a negro resort on Chicago street, was sent over for ninety days and fined $20 and costs for cutting Flossie Stuntz, another negress and also an inmate of the place. They engaged in a quarrel about a man and the Goodall woman secured a small pocket knife with which she inflicted eight wounds, none of which is serious. There is a slash on the left side of the face and several about the body, but the wounded woman was able to appear in court this morning.

The Other Cases.

Royal W. Tucker begged hard to be let go this morning and he was given an hour to get out of town. He had been held over from yesterday. Charles Wilson was given the same opportunity and Jacob Snider accorded the same privilege. All were plain drunks. George Weigand, who gave the name of Thomas Steward yesterday, was sent out along with the others.

A fellow who gave the name of John Smith was assessed $1 and costs, which was paid out of money he had up for a bond.

MICHIGAN BANK ROBBED.

Harrisville, Mich., April 16.—Burglars last night blew the safe in the Alcona County Savings bank here and escaped with $5,000. The thieves over-looked $2,000 in currency.

fair secret but friends learned of it today. For many years Mahr was a side show attraction with Barnum & Bailey and the Buffalo Bill shows. He retired two years ago to devote his time to real estate interests here.

Brussels, April 16.—A local newspaper declares that a system of German espionage has been unearthed here. American Military Attache at Berlin to Come Home.

Berlin, April 16.—Lieut.-Col. John P. Wisser, the American military attache at Berlin, will bring his term of service here to a close on or about June 1st, when he will be relieved by Capt. Samuel G. Spartz. Colonel Wisser requested the war department in January of this year to transfer him home, as he has been nearly three years abroad. Emperor William has shown the colonel unusual attention during his stay and recently expressed regret at his departure. The German army administration has accorded the colonel every facility to study and report on military subjects.
